

Crown Me was established out of necessity to help improve the futures of our women and girls. Our goal, purpose, and mission is to rectify the miseducation and misguidance that our Queens are facing today in order to eradicate unhealthy relationships while building healthy families. We are educating women and girls to prevent toxic relationships, retrain toxic upbringings, and create emotionally healthy women that thrive in our societies. Our team goes out into our community and communities across the World to educate our Queens. We are on a mission to wake up our sleeping queens. SLEEPING QUEENS CANNOT REIGN! We want them to learn independence to prevent codependence. We want to help them Self Discover in order to increase Self Awareness and Self Love. We want to help them identify their life's purpose and mission. Self-Love will help them to increase their values and the values of generations to come. This is a movement to help women and girls of all colors, sizes, and creeds to show up boldly, authentically, and confidently in the world knowing that someone valued them enough to invest in their futures. We are weakening women's insecurities while normalizing feeling good about yourself! JOIN THE MOVEMENT! JOIN THE CROWN ME NATION!
