

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JULY 1, 2025

GO WANDERING TRAVEL PRESIDENT STEFANIE BOYLE EARNS CERTIFIED TRAVEL ASSOCIATE (CTA) DESIGNATION

Austin, TX – July 1, 2025 – Go Wandering Travel is proud to announce that President and Founder, Stefanie Boyle, has officially earned her Certified Travel Associate (CTA) designation from The Travel Institute.

The CTA designation is a hallmark of excellence and professionalism in the travel industry. It signifies that Stefanie has completed a rigorous curriculum covering sales skills, customer service, marketing, travel insurance, and ethical standards, along with passing a proctored final exam. The certification also requires 12 months of travel industry experience and a commitment to ongoing education.

“Travel planning is more complex than ever, and earning my CTA is part of my promise to deliver the highest level of service to my clients,” said Boyle. “From ever-changing airline policies to navigating international travel requirements, my clients deserve a professional who is trained, tested, and ready to handle every detail.”

In a time when more Americans are turning to travel advisors for support and expertise (CNBC, 2021), the CTA credential represents a growing movement toward trusted, educated advisors. According to The Travel Institute, Certified Travel Associates consistently provide better value, more efficient planning, and tailored experiences that go far beyond what travelers can find on their own.

As the owner of Go Wandering Travel, a Texas-based boutique agency specializing in personalized travel experiences across Europe, the Caribbean, Mexico, and beyond, Stefanie believes that travel should feel effortless for her clients. Her CTA training enhances her ability to design customized itineraries that are seamless, enriching, and perfectly suited to each traveler's style and goals.

With this certification, Stefanie joins a distinguished group of professionals recognized for upholding the highest standards in the industry.

About Go Wandering Travel: Go Wandering Travel is a full-service travel planning company based in the Austin/Cedar Park area. Led by Stefanie Boyle, the agency curates personalized journeys for clients who want meaningful, stress-free travel experiences. Whether planning a milestone celebration, a family getaway, or a once-in-a-lifetime honeymoon, Go Wandering Travel handles the details so clients can focus on making memories.