NAME Don Riggins LOT NUMBER 107B-122-123

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

How long have you been a member of the community 18 yrs, are you part time resident _____, full time resident since 2016, nonresident owner _____

What is your work experience: General Contractor Owner with over 30 years experience, working as a Field Supervisor. Schedule with sub-contractors and employees, Coordinating work orders

What do you enjoy about our community: The area and the neighbors

What is your interest in serving on the Board of Directors, and how do you believe you can serve our community: Roads Committee, other Members have encouraged me and we are willing to work together towards the same goals. I am retired and I have the time.

I believe I qualify because of my experience in obtaining necessary inspections, permits, and Maintained job costing

Please tell us more about yourself and how you relate to our community.

Describe in a few words your experience with or thoughts about the following.

Making decisions on behalf of others as an elected director: I did have experience in decision making with my organization, my employees, and customers, with fiduciary responsibilities.

Your vision of our community in five (5) years: The next generation of volunteers to step up for the board. Younger, New Owners getting involved with the community!

Association member confidentiality: I accept. I am honest, hard working, and work well with others

Exploring options and possibly updating the current Copper Canyon Ranches Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CCRs) and Bylaws I believe the CC&R's and Bylaws should be updated. Hopefully, we can get a committee to help get the votes needed to change this old document.
