

Hello, Friends! Happy New Year 2021!

I Dream of Tropical Beaches

When the weather is cold and there is snow on the ground, my mind wanders to a warm beach. My friend, Lynn, lives in St. Croix and teases me all winter. With COVID still a danger, I'm not traveling anywhere right now. I limit any exposure because I take care of my Mom. I hope all of you had a wonder-filled holiday season and a great New Year. We all need a better year. I am praying all of you to have a better 2021.

Your Poetry Lesson for January

Rispetto Poem

Rispetto is a short poetic form of Italian origin comprising of 11 syllables per line.

It has 8 lines and uses the ababccdd rhyme scheme.

Resolution for a New Beginning

By Cynthia Saarie

I have resolved to make a new beginning.

While wasting away in my reclining chair.

The year has started - the New Year's bells ringing.

The get-up and go went away with a flare.

I got up and showered, new clothes I put on.

I cleaned up my rooms and I picked up the lawn.

I'm resolving right now, I'll make a new start.

I carried my garbage away in my cart.

Church Special Offer for January

During January, I am offering all churches a video to help announce to their congregations that they are back open and practicing safe distancing. Money is tight for all businesses, and those that have been closed since March have had it rough. Many churches found no one was sending in tithes or monetary gifts to keep their bills paid and church buildings running. Now that they are open, and with safety in mind, I am doing my part by welcoming everyone back in with masks and safely distanced. If you know of a church that needs to put up a social media video to announce they are open and ready to have their congregations back, see my special. Limit 2 videos choices per church for only $25 each. Yes, only $25. On my front page...

Some of my Special Posts in December

Working on a new Ebook

I am putting together a new Ebook that will have at least 366 days of postings and pictures. I started posting every day in March after my sister died on February 1st from cancer. I post on Facebook on my FanForevermore page and on LinkedIn, until September, when Facebook changed their rules. I continued to post on Facebook manually. I hope they change their rulings again of third party posts. (I use Hootsuite to schedule my posts! If you need a CRM manager, Hootsuite has a free version I've used for a long time.) Every Monday or Tuesday, in between getting my mother's laundry done and her groceries purchased, I work on the following week's posts. In March, I will have completed a Leap Year's worth of posts and I'm putting them into an Ebook. Stay tuned for information on how you can order a copy. Until next month, stay healthy and safe. Wear your mask, as nasty as they are, they do help. I want 2021 to be 1001% better than in 2020. Let's try. Peace.

Two last items... My pastor asked me to step in for him on Dec. 31st to lead a short 10-minute prayer online. He is an ex-Army Ranger and now an Army Chaplain. Sometimes he is called away unexpectedly in emergency situations. And we have had a lot of them in 2020! The link is the short recording of the PowerPoint I presented on Zoom. I wish you all a terrific 2021. 10-Minute Prayer PowerPoint

The second link here is a new website I just put up. It's really cool!!! I found out how to make the entire background a video. Hey, it is a learning process, right? No one ever told me I can't learn new tricks. If you have a moment check it out on a full screen. MyCashCart
