

10th Annual STUDENT ADLERIAN SOCIETY CONFERENCE

Addressing Trauma Thru Purpose: Integrative Approaches Towards a Positive Lifestyle

A society designed to help future clinicians who promote, educate, and advocate the use of Alfred Adler's Adlerian theory within their practices. S.A.S provides leadership experience, professional development opportunities and mentorship for all students specializing in the Adlerian track. S.A.S offers opportunities for potential scholarship preference, networking at conferences and a strong presence within the community and campus.
