FEBRUARY

2026: A CELEBRATORY YEAR
IN 10 OBJECTS
Wed, February 11th

Join the Norwell Historical Society for our 2026 kick-off event! Historian Stephen O'Neill will showcase 10 items that speak to this historic year. Stories about the Revolutionary War, the Jacobs Farmhouse, and King Philip's War will be told through artifacts in the Society's collection.

♥ VALENTINE'S TEA WITH THE JACOBS
Sun, February 15th

The Jacobs Farmhouse is 300 years old, and so is the marriage of Joshua and Mary Jacob. Have tea and 18th century treats with the Jacobs as they discuss their wedding, their marriage, and their home. Of course, they will offer tours as well!

NORTH RIVER
HISTORY + HERITAGE
POP-UP MUSEUM ♥
Sat, March 7th

Five North River Historical Societies, the Mattakeeset Tribe, and the North River Watershed Association all join together to celebrate our beloved North River and its history.

KING PHILIP'S WAR: INDIGENOUS SLAVERY, INDENTURE + FREEDOM
Wed, March 25th

Historian Marjory Gomez O'Toole will discuss Native American slavery, the little-known secret behind the fighting during King Philip's War.

MARCH

APRIL

JACOBS FARMHOUSE: OPEN
MUSEUM DAYS ♥
First Sundays
April–November

Celebrate the 300th birthday of the Jacobs Farmhouse on the first Sunday of the month (from April to November) when the house will be open for tours from 3:00–5:00.

ANTIQUES APPRAISAL DAY
Sun, April 26th

It's a historic year, what treasures do you have to celebrate? Make an appointment to have your antiques appraised, or stop by to watch the action and hear the amazing stories of these historic items.

MAY DAY BASKET
MAKING ♥
Fri, May 1st

Come to the Jacobs Farmhouse and make a basket for your neighbor's door.

MAY

JUNE

COLONIAL MILITARY FESTIVAL ♥ ON THE
JACOBS HOMESTEAD FIELDS
Sun, June 28th

History comes alive on the Jacobs fields when Col. Bailey's 2nd Mass. Regiment (which both Joshua and John Jacob were in!) sets up camp for a day of military drills, living history demonstrations, crafts, and children's activities.

JULY

THE JACOBS BROTHERS
DISCUSS THE WAR, JULY 1776:
AN ORIGINAL PLAY IN THE WEST BARN
Sun, June 28th, Tue, June 30th + Thu, July 2nd

James Jacob, who lives in the Jacobs Farmhouse in 1776, will tend to his animals in the West Barn and discuss the Revolutionary War with his brother Joshua, who just completed his service in Col. Bailey's Regiment, and brother John, who is on leave as a field officer in the Continental Army.

AUGUST

FOR POSTCARDS +
NORTH RIVER PACKET:
HISTORIC TALES OF NORWELL
Fri, September 18th

The Society is publishing two new books for 2026, come meet the authors and pick up your copies while they last! Jon Bond's Postcards of Norwell contains historic images of our hometown and the North River, and The North River Packet: Historic Tales of Norwell is a compilation of our best newsletter articles, oral histories, and cemetery tour scripts.

NATIVE HISTORY IN NORWELL
PRESENTATION + ANNUAL MEETING
Wed, September 30th

Join the Historical Society for its (brief!) Annual Meeting followed by Native historian Darius Coombs, who will relate the 12,000 year history of the indigenous tribes who lived in what we today call Norwell.

OCTOBER

FIRST PARISH CEMETERY COMES ALIVE! TOUR:
REVOLUTION EDITION
Sat, October 24th

The 7th annual re-enactment tour will feature portrayals of historic individuals who are related to the American Revolution. Patriots were not only soldiers—meet the historians, diplomats, and women who also supported the cause.

CHRISTMAS AT THE FARMHOUSE +
ANNIVERSARY PARTY
FOR THE JACOBS
Sat, Dec. 12th

Let's finish this historic year with a party for Joshua and Mary Jacob and the amazing house they built, lived in, and their family later gifted to Norwell.

Celebrate 2026 and the holidays in the festively-decorated Jacobs Farmhouse museum.
