Banquet, Randi LeBoyer:

Banquet information:

182 choir people will attend on May 11th. 19 choir families have not responded yet.

94 theater/crew people will attend on May 12th.

The agenda will be sent to Chad by Thursday or Friday.

Seniors' baby pictures and senior pics will be made into a montage.

Will finalize centerpieces. Randi's mom is helping with them.

Thank you to Julie for wrapping t-shirts for seniors.

Suggestion: put chocolate candies on the tables. (Chad)

Start gathering equipment for banquet because it's expensive to rent. (Chad)

Some pieces are incredibly heavy. Jodi has a minivan and can help.

Allgauer's on the Riverfront usually provides speakers and microphones.

No union issues.

When will gifts be handed out? (Julie) Kids come up to receive. (Chad)

Randi thinks deposit has been paid. Heather is checking.

Show Meals, Rhea Saffar:

There were a few glitches but everything was fixed. Thank you to Heather for being an emergency driver.

Sent $6,138. to Dengeos.

Dengeos charged $9. a meal. The CTPO charged $10. a meal. The CTPO will bank $629.

124 people participated in show meals.

686 total meals were served.

62 people volunteered. The majority took 2 shifts.

Glenbrook North & South engaged amicably with each other, making new friends.

It was a wonderful experience!

Best way to have cast/crew get to know each other and build community is to eat together. (Chad)

Guest Speaker Matt Saffar from the Glenbrook Foundation:

Thank you to the CTPO for supporting the Foundation's dinner before the musical.

There were 125 people in attendance. $20,000. was raised and $ is still coming in.

The silent auction was extended a week after the event.

A lot of buzz for the Foundation's mission/dinner came during show meals while people were making new friends and at other CTPO events.

Fundraising, Tracey Becker:

Lou Malnati's fundraiser:

Students sold Lou Malnati's coupons. They received 5 points per a coupon based on membership status. Students were told that the first $30. would go towards membership dues.

105 coupons were sold, 525 FPP points were earned.

Highest number sold: Ryan Feinstein- 31!

It was a very easy fundraiser to do. Would love to do it again!

Open Mic Night:

Thank you to (for Open Mic Night):

Nancy and Jennifer Townsley for giving meaningful feedback.

Heather G. For setting up the facility.

We have great auction gifts.

We have only 10 acts submitted (possibly 2-3 more coming in), it's looking like an intimate gathering.

Kyle and Elani submitted something. Could GBS kids possibly join in? (Heather)

Kelsey:

Maybe that would open up a can of worms...maybe at this point it's not a good idea. Participation in One Acts was discussed in classes. ( 10 people showed interest). Some kids submitted but were turned down because the time limits to perform were exceeded. They would still like to participate.

Nancy & Tracey:

In view of the minimal number of acts, we think it would be a good idea to admit them. Next year, time allotment can be readdressed.

Nancy:

There used to be more of a variety of acts.

Tracey:

Perhaps the choir directors would like to perform? Chad and Kelsey respectfully declined. Tracey asked if she should reach out to students. Directors felt they have done so.

Julie Ann Hill will mention it during Theater Club.

Ryan Kreiter will MC it.

Tracey is getting more information from a friend who runs silent auctions.

She will speak to Kelsey about equipment set up. Kelsey will look for banners and other items from previous years.

Nancy validated that an open mic banner was created for past shows. She will call Dana.

Concessions, Andrea Dalinka:

Concessions for Shrek made $2,100.

Cookies were a huge hit!

Concessions will be sold at the Concert in the Courtyard.

Scholarship, Zivit Blonder:

Committee met and 5 students' names were chosen.

Names were sent to Chad.

Communications, Jodi Butler:

Julie Kreiter and Jodi will start working together on Communications.

The last CTPO meeting will be hosted by Heather MacDonald. Date tbd.
