

CTPO NOTES
December 3,2019

REPORTS:

Chad Davidson:

- Marty Sirvatka is doing a good job.
- Start of Express season
- Confirmed guest conductor Eric Esparza from DePaul for Techny concert that is at GBS this year. The performance will be on Sunday, March 8th at 3:00 p.m. No snacks in between. Will need volunteers.

Julie Ann Robinson:

- Matilda participating in Theater Festival, 1/9-1/11
- $150. to attend theater festival, payment includes registration and hotel
- Encouraging greater participation in crew
- 47 students going including musicians, 5 chaperones
- Matilda encore Tuesday 1/7 at 7:00, fundraiser for trip
- GROUP INTERP. auditions are Thursday, 1/16
- Comedy Sports well attended, $441. tickets for charity benefit

Treasurer:

- Fundraisers to date: butter braids, taffy apples, Chipotle, checkbooks
- Savings account officially closed

Concessions:

- Comedy Sportz made $78. in sales

Showmeals:

- One showmeal for Comedy Sportz for 15 students

Volunteers:

- Volunteers needed for concessions during encore Matilda performance.

Communications:

- Website coming along well. Goal is to make it user friendly and attractive. All communications will go to a centralized Gmail account.

Fundraising:

- California Pizza Kitchen: 1/13
- Shoe fundraiser: begins 3/9 for 6 weeks, collection of new and gently used shoes, 25 shoes per bag earns $225. Dr. Tartan approved kick off event in school.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Our 501c3 status states we are wards of the state. Our tax status lapsed. Attorney General sent letter we didn't receive. Thus, didn't respond. So on a state level we no longer exist. The government assessed a $200. late fee. CTPO needs to be accountable to the state. 2019 taxes are submitted.

- Scholarships: Need based scholarships- FPP for all purposes
- 2017/2018- $750. reduced
- 2018/2019- funds are missing, don't exist
- Liz: Motion made to move money from camp scholarships to needs-based scholarships for current budget year. It's a temporary situation to be remedied with next budget.
- Tracy: second motion, passes

NEXT MEETING: January 14th, 2019