

CTPO NOTES

January 14, 2020

Reports:

Chad Davidson:

- Beginning rehearsals for Variety Show, especially Vocal Ensemble
- Variety Show tickets on sale at showtix4u.com
- Theme for V-Show: Vision, 43 student acts
- Mr. Sirvatka brings great leadership
- Glenbrook Festival of music on March 8, 2020 at Glenbrook South, Dr. Eric Esparza is the guest conductor from De Paul.

Julie Ann Robinson:

- MATILDA was a big hit! Phenomenal teamwork!
- Thank you to Dr. Tarjan for getting a Coach bus for Theater Fest
- Group Interp Auditions took place. Students need to be available over spring break to practice. Rehearsals take place in the evenings.
- Brave (Pixar Production) has been chosen
- Show: Friday, March 20th
- Sectionals at Lake Park High School
- Thespian Troupe: looking to motivate and engage students, induction of kids in May.
- Julie Ann will take her maternity leave in the fall
- Susan Gorman is introduced...will work on musical Cinderella. Auditions will be at the end of February. A clinic will be offered.

Minutes voted in, no one opposed

Treasurer:

- Everything remains status quo

Concessions:

- Collected $78. During encore performance of Matilda
- Question: where to get flowers for Variety Show. Sunset will no longer donate.

Show meals:

- Sold 66 meals for Matilda
- Will need servers for two nights during the Variety Show.
- Will provide meals for Cinderella

Volunteers:

- Needed more volunteers at the winter concert, kids were very talkative

Communications:

- Check out the new website! It's fabulous!! gbnctpo.org
- Work continues on Instagram

Fundraising:

- The CTPO had a fundraising night at California Pizza Kitchen

- In February: shoe fundraiser kick off event
- Finished fruit and butter braid fundraiser, earned $ sent directly into the students' accounts
Choir intake: $566.66 for fruit
$490.75 for butter braids
- Student balances can be checked on the CTPO website
- Please be vigilant about all members paying their dues.
- Mattress sales will no longer be a fundraiser. Looking for other creative ideas.
- Donation to Grad Night- $100.
- $250. to GBN Foundation- motion to "sally forth" to ask for tickets for donation
1st motion by Tanya
2nd motion by Nancy Freeze

New business:

- Brainstorm ideas for senior gifts
- Status of Attorney general submission: three items remaining. Need to submit constitution and by-laws. Nancy Frese and Liz will write outline for constitution

Next meeting:

- Tuesday, February 4, 2020
- Will need to choose membership for scholarship committee to read essays for senior scholarships