

CTPO General meeting

---

Present members:

Liz Vasiljevic, Tanya Slater, Tracy Meyer, Heather MacDonald, Dana Salzer, Marnie Baer, Jodi Butler, Zivit Blonder, James Williams, Claire Rosenson, Rhea James Williams, Jeannie Chang, Marnie Baer, Chad Davidson, Kelsey Nichols & Julie Ann Hill

Reports:

Choir (Chad Davidson):

Paint the Town: Choir and theater painted Francesca's Restaurant and Berkshire Hathway windows

Homecoming Assembly: Carly Meyer sang the National Anthem, Express sang the GBN Loyalty Song, Ow! sang High Hopes

Thank you to Claire Rosenson and Rhea Saffer for show meals.

Thank you to Esther Kelly for fitting the students' choir uniforms.

IMEA had auditions at Crystal Lake South, CONGRATULATIONS to Bella Kim, David Schaeffer, Zach Torf, Chang Woo Yu who were chosen for the IMEA Allstate Honor Choir.

Next performance: Cider & Song concert is on October 29th

Choir ( Kelsey Nichols):

Marty Sartiivka will instruct Ladies' First, A Cappella, Ow! and Formatta

Info about Variety Show at gbnvshow.com. Auditions are Nov. 17,18 and vocal auditions are on Nov. 21.

Important dates are on the CTPO website.

Theater (Julie Ann Hill):

Matilda attendance goal for three nights was 1,000. 1,500 PEOPLE ATTENDED!

Looking for ways to attract more students to participate in crew, especially with V-show on the horizon.

New procedures will be put in place so the box office runs smoother at future shows.

Tuesday, October 1, 2019

Three judges from IHSMTA gave spot-on feedback to the Matilda cast.

Cast members will find out if they are accepted to Illinois High School Theater Fest during Thanksgiving break . 14 students are already signed up to attend.

GBN and GBS Matilda and Rent cast members supported both theater departments by attending each other's shows.

Spring break 2022: GBN will host the GI (Group Interpretation) state tournament.

Winter play: Comedy Sportz, seating will be on stage

"Origins" One Acts will be performed Oct. 17,18 &19.

One show meal will be served on Oct. 16th.

Rehearsal on Columbus Day.

Treasurer's report (Heather MacDonald):

CTPO membership: 85 members

Members need to let CTPO know how they would like their names printed in the programs.

Additional support of CTPO: explore possibility of alumni membership ( patrons group).

Concessions (Tanya Slater and Dana Salzar):

- Collected $804.

Show Meals (Claire Rosenson & Rhea Saffer):

Looking into using the Good & Fresh Bakery for more variety.

They will put out their own sign up genius for volunteers.

Extra treats (during shows) brought in by students no longer allowed due to allergy concerns.

Volunteers (Dana):

A big thank you to Matilda helpers! Helpers were still selling concessions after the show.

Tuesday, October 1, 2019

Cider & Song, October 29th: Looking for volunteers from 6:00-9:00 to sit with the kids during the concert and sell taffy apples in the lobby after the show.

Communications (Jodi):

Working on transfer of Instagram page.

Working on Facebook.

Matilda was written up in The Patch, The Northbrook Tower and The Glenview Lantern.

Fundraising ( Leslie and Steven Chiappetti):

30 checkbooks remain to be sold. End date : Oct. 4th

Next fundraiser: butter braids and fruit sales. Orders due: Nov. 5th

Product delivery: Dec. 6th at GBN cafeteria

Taffy apples for Cider & Song:

Need volunteers to wrap.

Donation of apples from Jewel.

Extra taffy apples will be sold the next day at lunch in the cafeteria.

Unfinished business:

Proposed 2019-2020 budget passed, can be viewed on CTPO website.

Jodi Butler voted in as Communications Chair.

New business:

Fund a frame: framed musical or theater show poster hung in drama room.

$100. for a single sponsor, $75. apiece for 2 or more sponsors enabling a contribution to the CTPO.

Next meeting: Tuesday, November 12, 2019

Time: 6:00-7:00

Room: T.B.D.

Tuesday, October 1, 2019