GST Portal Changes – Electronic Credit Reversal and Reclaimed Statement

GST is well known for its frequent amendments, leaving the businessman always guessing what has changed and what implications it has for his business. These amendments are relating, not only to the legal text of the act or the rules or the notifications, but are changes happening in the GST portal as well, which is the window provided for making compliances w.r.t. GST.

Last few months of a calendar year is generally the busiest season of compliance in India. During this time businesses are focused on filing income tax returns and reports, finishing
