

Read the questions carefully before answering and then use your best judgement to complete the questions.

Grammar

1. Change the verbs to the past tense and then re-write the sentence in the space provided on your answer page.
 - a. I think I see the postman coming down the road.
 - b. I swim in the sea when the weather is fine.
 - c. The man works as a clerk and sells stamps to the customers
2. Change the verbs to the future tense and then re-write the sentence in the space provided on your answer page.
 - a. We gathered the recycling and went to the bins.
 - b. He brought his son to the Paralympic Games on Sunday.
 - c. When I met her, she was very busy.
3. Write the preposition found in each sentence on your answer page.
 - a. Did you see the program on television?
 - b. She is the winner of the marathon.
 - c. On the 1st of January, we celebrate the New Year.
4. Write the adverb found in each sentence on your answer page.
 - a. Anna wore her new dress today.
 - b. Rikhil called loudly to his dog across the road.
 - c. Ashley half-heartedly offered to wash the dishes.
5. Write any three proper nouns on your answer page.
6. Re-write the following sentences and add an adjective to each one.
 - a. The horse is standing in the field.
 - b. The children crossed the road.
 - c. The boat sank in the lake.
7. A subordinate clause must be joined by another clause to make a complete sentence. On its own, it could not be a normal sentence.
Underline on this paper the part of the sentence that you think is a subordinate clause.
 - a. World War One, which is my research topic, is a complex subject.
 - b. My teacher, who is new to our school, is a wonderful woman.
 - c. We will go to Disney Land, and, time permitting, the seaside.

Punctuation

1. Add an apostrophe in the sentences below where it is needed.
 - a. My hat is in the lions cage!
 - b. We borrowed books from the schools library.
 - c. Its a shame we can't go out.
2. Remove the conjunction from the sentence and re-write on your answer sheet it using a semicolon instead.
 - a. Dylan is allergic to milk so therefore, he can't eat ice cream.
 - b. The clock is five minutes slow so we are always late for lunch after English.
 - c. This little piggy went to market yet this little piggy stayed home.
3. Choose which sentence is written and punctuated correctly. Write the letter on your answer sheet.
 - a. Mark has three sisters, Amy, Paula, and Gina.
 - b. Mark has three sisters Amy, Paula, and Gina.
 - c. Mark has three sisters: Amy, Paula, and Gina.
4. The following dialogue is from the novel The Secret Garden. It is a conversation between Mary and her cousin Colin who are meeting each other for the first time. Add speech marks where they are need throughout the passage.

How old are you?

I am ten, answered Mary, forgetting herself for the moment, and so are you.

How do you know that? He demanded in a surprised voice.

Because when you were born the garden door was locked and the key was buried. And it has been locked for ten years.

5. Choose which sentence is written and punctuated correctly. Write the letter on your answer sheet.
 - a. Mary just moved to Park street.
 - b. Mary just moved to Park Street.
 - c. Mary just moved to park street.
6. Add commas where they are needed to the sentences below.
 - a. Jenna what do you know about coin collecting?
 - b. Collecting things such as buttons pins and stamps can be fun.
 - c. Well we might start a new collection of classical music.
7. Re-write the following sentences marking whatever changes are necessary to make them correct.
 - a. I seen a ghost once in the basement.
 - b. Are you flying back to america.
 - c. Be careful.That house is haunted.