PENNSYLVANIA – 21st July 2021 – 3 Monkeys Inflatables is pleased to provide corporate event ideas for this summer in the form of rock climbing walls, inflatable games, obstacle courses, and loads of other games. This rental company is the go-to place for all kinds of bounce house rentals, party rentals, and water slide rentals. The party rental specialists have been voted #1 for inflatable rentals in all of Central PA. Started in 2007, the company had been improvising and expanding its product range with each passing year. It now carries all the latest equipment in party rentals including moonwalk rentals, bouncy castles, water slides, and many others for all age groups.

These rentals offer an amazing opportunity for people to enjoy, interact, exercise, socialize and have incredible fun at the event. Renting party rental equipment such as inflatable games, obstacle courses or rock climbing walls is just a click away. The updated website now allows customers to book their favorite rentals in just a couple of minutes. The website also features a limited edition product catalog featuring all the Mid-Atlantic attractions for large events and corporate events. It is not just the regular inflatables that are featured here. Customers can rent adventurous and entertaining games for their guests.

The giant battleship, escape room tent, bumper cars, grand slam melt-down, foam pits, human foosball, mechanical bull, big stinka, nuclear rock climb with 45ft incline obstacle course, crash course obstacle course, and many other exciting rentals are featured here for the teenage and adult group. There are exclusive toddler inflatables such as wacky world, the animal kingdom, and a great collection of dry slides. Young children can be entertained with themed jumpers and slides such as Unicorn, Frozen, Disney, Star Wars, and a lot more. Corporate event organizers can also browse for some carnival games to make the event an interesting one.

3 Monkeys also features distracted driving simulators and digital game simulators for a real-time experience. What's an event without concession machines? Cotton candy, hot dog roller, donut maker, popcorn machines, potato chips, baked beans, cold salad, and many other machines are featured here. As one of the top-rated party event specialists, 3 Monkeys inflatables help customers plan the entire event with just a few clicks. Event equipment such as pole tents, tent lighting, misting tents, folding chairs, generator and gas, tables, picnic tables, etc. can also be rented here at exclusive packages.
