EMMY KEYES

Stage and Film Actor

www.emmykeyes.com

Hi! My name is Emmy. I am a British actor living in Miami, US. Authorized to work, with the ability to travel across the US and overseas at short notice.

I trained at Sylvia Young Theatre School and took a break in acting as I focused on my main business.

In 2021, having achieved success in my business for over 16 years, I decided to return to acting as an adult and commit to my passion and embark on an exciting journey as a British actor living in the United States.

I love playing strong female dramatic characters that know what their objectives are and how to get them.

I'm approachable as an actor, have a sense of humor as well as typical British sarcasm. Since being active in 2022, I've been cast in theatre, short films as well as a TV series and various advertisements. Most importantly, I'm reliable & understand the importance of time and commitment to projects and performances with my global business experience.

hello
