PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Thanks everyone for attending our 17th Specialty show this year making it a big success! The money we make pays for our insurance premiums for the club to exist.
Thank you to everyone who contributes in every way. Nancy Dandrea does a fine job of searching for our trophies all year long & arm twists you all into contributing.
Now many of you are heading off to the nationals. Good luck!
I don't know yet if we will have a summer meeting or match but will see some of you at the shows. We will have our fun Dog Daze in November!
Happy Spot walking!
Debbie Goddard, Pres

EDITOR'S RAMBLING

2017.....A new year at DCSDC and already our Specialty has come and gone. What an AWESOME job Debbie Goddard and Boyd Goddard did guiding us through another Specialty. Did you all see Debbi Jones in the ring judging? Again, a fantastic job. Chuck Davis doing an excellent job again as Ring Steward.....and a shout out to Nancy Dandrea for collecting all our excellent trophy gifts for the winners. A fun time had by all (except for maybe my little Dal Serena..... who surprised us all that day trying to hide behind Nancy in the ring so that the Judges evil-eye did not descend upon her)

Welcome to new members to our club...
Donna Johnston located in Murrieta and
Hilary and Tim Farris located in Mission Viejo.
Big welcome to our Dalmatian Club family!

Some very good news: OUR "DOG DAZE" IS ON AGAIN. THE DATE: NOVEMBER 19TH.....Please mark your calendar and then check our club's FACEBOOK Page for more information and directions to this event. It is a great time relaxing with all our club members and their dogs. Fun to get together outside of a dog show.....there will be food, fun, dogs.....sounds like a perfect time to me! Again.....please mark the calendar and check back on our Facebook page for directions and a flyer for the event.

See you there!
Mary Bennett, Editor

We dedicated our Specialty 2017 to Carol Haywood. Her passing has left a hole in my heart. When I was greener than green in Dalmatians, Carol and her sister Peggy were so good to me and welcoming as if I had been a friend for years and years.
Thank you Carol for your friendship. I am missing our chats so much..
I miss you!

EDITOR'S RAMBLINGS OR MUMBLINGS

The time has come for another Dot.....you would think after all these years of doing this newsletter I would know what I was doing... that it would be easy.....well, that is not the case. So once again please excuse any typos, ramblings or mumblings that i try to put down in this newsletter. The computer programs seem to change all the time but my skill is going in the opposite direction the older i become.

So the important things in this newsletter....please find the Fun Day Flyer and RSVP by email to Heather Middleton.
Next, please find the Holiday Party flyer with directions to Chuck and Elaines House on the back of the flyer. Also....please RSVP to Elaine by the very generous deadline so Elaine can plan accordingly. Do not forget your wrapped gift for our cut-throat gift exchange .....where enemies are made (and then forgiven) and the laughs never stop.
One more little message...I do not remember where I picked up the Dalmatian poem.....weather someone sent it to me or I found it....so please forgive me if I have forgotten to give credit where credit was due.
Finally...hope you enjoy the Newsletter. (if not then don't tell me :-)

Oh to live with a Dalmatian

(Editor is sorry. She does not know who wrote this poem)

O to live with a Dalmatian, how much fun,
O to watch him run and run ... and run,
O to see him playing in the sun,
O the trouble he gets in ... and then some!

O the chewed corners in every room,
O I remember when new teeth loomed!
O nothing was safe - old or new,
O when he wanted, he would chew ... and chew!!

O he is older now and still a clown,
O nothing seems to get him down,
O he's always smiling, never a frown,
O he's just great fun to be around.

O look at his coat and how striking he is,
O his lovely dark spots that no-one could miss,
O for a whiter coat, he could not wish.
O such melting eyes, full of promise.

O and whilst I write about all these 'O' s,
I must stress the spelling, I suppose,
Dals are crammed with character, but I must mention..
There are 'A' s but no 'O' s in a DalmatiAn!!

DID YOU KNOW?

1. DOGS CAN SEE COLOR?
Dogs are not colorblind! Although the color range they can see is limited compared to what we can see, they do indeed see more than just black, white and gray as the canine color spectrum consists mostly of yellows, blues, and violets.

2. DOGS DRINK FUNNY?
When a dog drinks water, he actually rolls the back of his tongue to form a small cup.

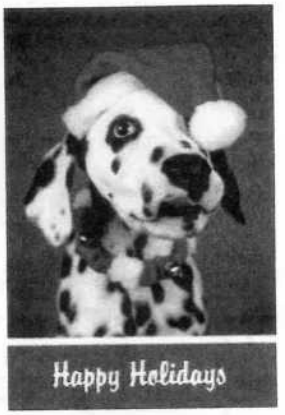

3 DOGS HAVE UNIQUE NOSE PRINTS?
Not just dogs, but cats as well. A dog's nose print is unique just like a human's fingerprint, which means a nose print can be used to accurately identify a dog. Look closely and you will see line and ridge patterns on their cute little noses!

Judge – has two meanings:

1. To the loser, a stupid fellow who knows nothing about your type of dog.

Lady Maxine's Book of Quotations

The reason a dog has so many friends is that he wags his tail, instead of his tongue.

Anonymous

He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounters with the roughness of the world. When all other friends desert, he remains.

Sen. George Graham Vest

A watchdog is a dog kept to guard your home, usually by sleeping where a burglar would awaken the household by falling over him.

Anonymous

It is hard to teach an old dog tricks.

William Camden (1605)

It is naught good a sleeping hound to wake.
