Greetings Shooters!

The Idaho Shotgun Sports Museum opened last June at the Boise Gun Club, and visitors have loved exploring Idaho's shotgun heritage—from pioneer days to today.

Stop in to see historic guns and gear, Idaho's WWII connections, early-1900s hunting photos, the Baker family's famous "10 people, 10 guns" picture, and a special display on Hall of Fame inductee Johnny Gray.

Don't miss the reference library with 60+ binders and 130 books. Thanks to a generous Idaho Heritage Trust grant, many century-old photos have been beautifully restored.

Wishing you a great 2026 shooting year!
