About Us

St Andrews Christian Center: The New Street Ministry Assembly of True Believers

In these transformative times, we are compelled to embrace a divine spirit, as the world around us evolves. The supernatural is at work, and we are called to establish a fellowship that caters to the needs of both the young and the elderly.

"As a spiritual seeker, People always sought ways to deepen my connection with God. Surprisingly, it was during spiritual seeker time spent with the horses at our Street ministry that found a profound spiritual connection. The bond formed with these beautiful creatures became a metaphor for many spiritual journey. Their intuitive nature and the peaceful environment created by the ministry allowed people to find moments of divine connection and contemplation that One had never experienced before."

Healing through Equine-Assisted Therapy

"After a difficult period of loss and emotional turmoil, People found solace and healing through the equine-assisted therapy sessions offered by the our horse street ministry. Working with these magnificent animals allowed people to reconnect with themself and regain a sense of inner peace. The bond formed with the horses became a powerful catalyst for emotional healing, and we try to provide the supportive and nurturing environment to people."

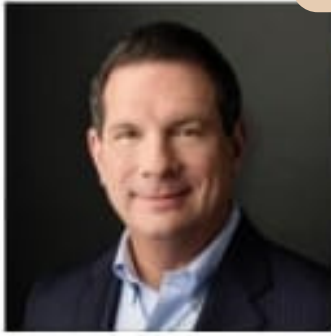

Our Goal

At True Ekklesia, we believe in the power of community and the importance of giving back. That's why we are advancing this ministry - to help non-profits and charitable organizations achieve their goals and make a real difference in the world.

(RNS) – Four Christian leaders and education advocates are seeking the Oklahoma Supreme Court’s permission to join a lawsuit filed by the state’s attorney general that aims to prevent the opening of an online Catholic charter school.

The plaintiffs – Melissa Abdo, Bruce Prescott, the Rev. Mitch Randall and the Rev. Lori Walke – contend that the Oklahoma Statewide Virtual Charter School Board’s decision to sponsor the St. Isidore of Seville Catholic Virtual School undermines religious freedom in the state and will lead to discrimination against nonreligious students.

“The separation of church and state is not the sole responsibility of the state; the church has to do its part to hold that line and continue to honor that separation,” said Walke.

Prayer Point

Topics to pray over

- That the Body of Christ takes up the sword of the Spirit, seeing God's Word as final authority over any idea or philosophy culture introduces
- That we speak the Truth in love as we contend for the faith.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, there is a "woke" agenda being pushed on our culture today. It's a worldview that says that anything is acceptable, that conservative values are "outdated and wrong," and that America is not a Christian nation

Finally, God, help us to use wisdom when talking with others about these things. We want to love others while standing for the truth. Therefore, we will speak the truth in love as we contend for the faith. America shall be saved! In the Name of Jesus. Amen!
