COMEDIAN MICHAEL THORNE

Audiences love Michael Thorne's energetic style, his insightful jokes and his cartoon-like vocal delivery. If you could hook Michael up to the power grid, you'd run Xcel Energy right out of business. He is an amalgam of culture and white trash raised in Nordeast Minneapolis. Audiences love his hilarious observational insights on evolution (or the lack thereof), human relations, marriage and parenthood. Non-stop and rapid-fire, Michael's shows traditionally end with some of the most devastating closing bits in comedy.
