

Christopher Nolland has been a mediator and arbitrator since 1993. He has conducted over 3,000 mediations and numerous arbitrations, primarily in complex business and commercial matters and fiduciary litigation. Nolland's mediation and arbitration practice focuses on large, complex, multifaceted disputes. His mediation and arbitration practice is national in scope. He is a member of the AAA National Panel of Arbitrators and the AAA National Panel of Mediators.

In addition to his Mediation and Arbitration practice, over the past 20 years Christopher Nolland has established a national practice as Settlement/Negotiation Counsel, acting as the principal negotiator for one party to a dispute in a non-neutral role. Nolland has been engaged as Settlement Counsel in dozens of matters, primarily involving complex high stakes business and significant fiduciary disputes, including major trust and probate litigation, director and officer litigation, professional liability, intellectual property, and partnership and closely held business litigation, as well as significant insolvency and litigation trustee matters. His Settlement Counsel practice has been the subject of articles in leading legal and business publications.

As an Adjunct Professor of Law at SMU Law School for twenty-five years Mr. Nolland has taught a full semester course on Negotiation to 2nd and 3rd year law students and LLM candidates.

After law school, Mr. Nolland served as an appellate law clerk and thereafter practiced law in New York City with a major national firm and in New York City and Dallas, Texas as a partner with a well-known national business litigation firm. Mr. Nolland is admitted to practice in Texas and New York and numerous United States Courts of Appeal and United States District Courts, as well as the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Nolland is a Fellow of the American College of Civil Trial Mediators and a member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals (both by invitation only), as well as a member of the Association of Attorney Mediators, and the ADR and Litigation sections of National, State and Local Bar Associations.

Chris Nolland was named by Chambers as a leading nationwide mediator each year from 2017-2023 (ranked Nationwide Band 2 in 2021-2023), noting in its 2020 profile that "Christopher Nolland brings a 'very innovative' approach to mediation...". In its 2023 profile, Chambers reported comments about Nolland include that "He is a really brilliant guy that is always thinking about how to take mediation to the next level." Mr. Nolland was named by D Magazine as one of the Best Lawyers in Dallas in 2003, 2005, 2007, 2008, and 2010 – 2023 (all years the list has been published) and named as an Inaugural member of the D Magazine Best Lawyers Hall of Fame (2022). Texas Monthly/Thompson Reuters selected him as a Texas Super Lawyer from 2003 – 2023 and in 2007 and 2020 as one of the top 100 Lawyers in Texas. Selected for 15 years as one The Best Lawyers in America by BL Rankings LLC (2008 – 2024) and ranked as a Best Lawyer by U.S. News and World Report in 2013 - 2023. Mr. Nolland is one of 5 Texas mediator finalists statewide for the 2012 Go-To Lawyers Guide published by Texas Lawyer. In 2016 Mr. Nolland was selected by Texas Lawyer for its Lifetime Achievement Award. Who's Who Legal (published by Law Business Research Ltd in London) recognized Mr. Nolland as a Global Leader in Mediation in 2022, 2021 and in prior years.

American Lawyer named Chris Nolland to its 2021 inaugural class of Trailblazers South for his creation and development of a new practice area – acting as Special Settlement Counsel to clients in major litigation. In 2016, Mr. Nolland was named as a National ADR Champion by The National Law Journal and was the recipient of the Steve Brutsché Award from the national Association of Attorney Mediators (its highest honor). In 2018, he received the Justice Frank Evans Award from the ADR Section of the State Bar of Texas for excellence in the field of Alternate Dispute Resolution. In 2019 Texas Lawyer named Mr. Nolland a Texas Trailblazer for his development of the Special Settlement Counsel concept of bifurcating the litigation and settlement negotiation functions among different outside counsel in disputes of significance.
