Cross Application Notification Solution (C.A.N.S.) V1 by On1 Solutions Limited Is Certified by SAP® as Built on SAP Business Technology Platform

RUGBY, United Kingdom – February 27, 2023 – On1 Solutions Limited announced today that its Cross Application Notification Solution (C.A.N.S.) V1 is certified by SAP® as built on SAP Business Technology Platform (SAP BTP), SAP’s unified, business-centric platform that helps companies decide confidently, act with integrity, connect processes, data, and experiences, and achieve continued business innovation.

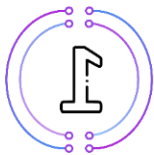

“I am overjoyed to announce that Cross Application Notification Solution (C.A.N.S.) V1 has achieved SAP certification as built on SAP BTP. This marks a significant milestone in the design and development of this product and am super proud of my team that helped achieve this,” said Sunny Patel, Founder and Managing Director at On1 Solutions Limited.

C.A.N.S. is built on SAP BTP using SAP Extension Suite and integrated with SAP® SuccessFactors®. C.A.N.S. helps organizations to centralize all their business notifications. It works across multiple platforms and automates all processes, from gathering data to issuing relevant notifications to employees and managers, while providing an auditable trail of communications.

SAP Integration and Certification Center (SAP ICC) has certified that the integration software for the product Cross Application Notification Solution (C.A.N.S.) V1 is built on SAP BTP. This solution is SAP certified to run using the extension capabilities available in SAP BTP.

About On1 Solutions Limited

Born out of the knowledge that HR software buyers are not optimizing their technology investments, On1 Solutions founder Sunny Patel wanted to change this model. But his experience and insights led him to understand that simply investing in more technologies to enhance performance isn’t always the answer. Instead, Sunny created a company with HR IT optimization at its core. Through utilizing existing technologies and software, configuring modules, technically joining processes together, working with third-party technologies and emerging brands, On1 Solutions is all about making HR software work more powerfully.
