

Hi, my name is Sheryl Miller and I am the Client Service Leader with Bellwood Industrial Plating. I'd like to take a moment to familiarize you with our business or, if you've previously been a client, to reacquaint you with our company.

Bellwood Industrial Plating has been in the Electroplating business for nearly half a century and since October 2015 has partnered with Ray Duke (CEO). Ray is working diligently to revitalize the company with an eye towards continuing its expansion for the next half a century and beyond, all while becoming the new owner. For the past two years BIP has brought back much needed business and continues to push forward.
