

Eddie Baytos & The Nervis Brothers have been in Los Angeles for the last 25 years! It's LA's longest running and still existing band in a city where things don't last! It's made up of some of the most amazing side-men from around the world. Eddie has backed up and recorded with everyone from Candye Kane, Joe Higgs, Joe Cocker, RL Burnside, Junior Kimbrough, Annie Lennox, Rod Stewart, John Mayer, Cesar Rosas from Los Lobos, Dave Mason, Bob Dylan, Sade, Steve Riley, Zigaboo Modeliste from the Meters, Lee Dorsey, Irma Thomas, Dr. John, Ernie K-Doe, Dave Mason, Lester Butler—well you get the picture! Eddie not only plays New Orleans funk and Mardi-Gras music but also play Zydeco, Cumbias, Forro', Zouk, Souka, African, Ska, and of course Blues! It has truly become a World Music Band with it's influences from New Orleans as it's roots! They have performed on several major TV shows the best of which was the Ellen Degeneres Show for Mardi-Gras a few years back.

Band Leader and founder Eddie Baytos is also an award winning choreographer/director from MTV, AVA, and Billboard Music Awards and has tapped dance on record with Fayord Nicholas from the famous Nicholas Brothers on a Phil Alvin CD called "County Faire" which got critically acclaimed praise for the song "Low Down Rhythm"!

Eddie also have a documentary coming out about "Chasin Da Blues" around the world and a TV series with it also- <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=epLsdAYQDSY>. Eddie has also scored many TV commercials and movies and has done staging and videos for ZZ Top, Weird Al Yankovic, and Annie Lennox. He has recently worked on "The Princess & the Frog" and staged "Rock Star" with Mark Wahlberg and Jennifer Aniston in addition we played Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitts wedding. We have also played many celebrity parties for people like Sandra Bullock, Anthony Quinn, Stacey Keach, Billy Bob Thornton, Kevin Costner and so on. Our biggest party was the 1996 Democratic Convention where Bill Clinton sat in with us on sax. Other corporate events we did are Microsoft, Sony Pictures, NBC News, Paul Mitchell Hair Products, Paramount Pictures and Warner Brothers!
