November meeting preview and Happy Halloween!

Join us at the next meeting of the Central Neighborhood Council -- 7 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 2 at the Tacoma Nature Center and on Zoom for those who cannot make it in person. Details are on our website at cnc-tacoma.com.

Bring your questions for our city liaisons who join to provide updates on activities in Central Tacoma and around the city.

Other meeting topics on the agenda:

New board member – Another neighbor has stepped up and offered to join the board. His application will be discussed and voted on as part of our regular meeting.

- Senior services – MultiCare is seeking volunteers for their senior services program and will discuss the services offered.
- Porchfest 2024 – Planning for next year’s Porchfest begins with raising funds. We will discuss the role the CNC could play in next year’s event.
- Dragon parade – Planning is also underway for a holiday event in December. We’ll discuss early plans for a parade in the Central neighborhood featuring a fire-breathing dragon!

Have a safe and fun Halloween and don't forget that Nov. 7 is Election Day. Be sure to vote!

Supporting the neighborhood

The easiest way to participate in your community is to attend a meeting of the Central Neighborhood Council. Bring your questions for city officials, share ideas to improve our community, or just come to hear about happenings around Central Tacoma.
