Susan Coco

Also, Susan donated a print of "Walking in the Rain" to Mayor Babick of Carrollton to help with his Mayoral Campaign for promoting the Arts in Carrollton.

Patty Rodgers

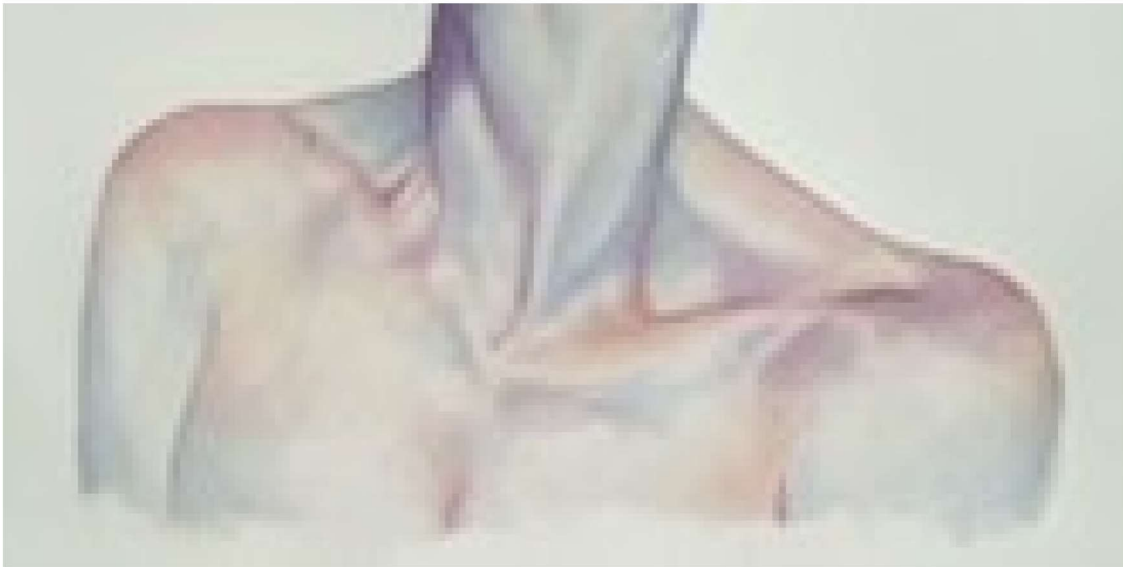

Patty's most recent news is that she sold a painting, "Pink Roses in Glass Vase", to her first (Texas) client, through Chairish.com. One of her paintings, "Corner of a Room", will be featured in "World of Interiors" magazine in the May 23 issue in a section called Artistic Impressions.

Tina Alvarez

Tina has an exhibit at the RTown Art Gallery in Grapevine (314 S Main Street... next to Bakery). Her photos will change every month. This is the May exhibit.

Carolyn Kingsley

Cut Throat by Carolyn Kingsley sells at Greater Lewisville Community Theater

VAL member Carolyn Kingsley grew up with a love for drawing, and only recently picked up watercolor in September 2022 as a way to pass time as her husband recovered from surgery. It was a challenging transition, but in that time Carolyn developed a passion for painting portraits, figure studies, and the occasional flower. Carolyn timidly joined VAL in January 2023 at the encouragement of her mom (Cary Cox, VAL Membership Chairperson) and has been so inspired by the level of creativity in other members! Cut Throat (2023) embraces both femininity and peculiarity with exaggerated proportions and an unexpected color palette.

Jose Angel Hernandez

Emerge Art Fair was a weekend-long exhibition of diverse art and art talks led by gallery owner Randall Garret. Guest speakers included Angel Faz, Raymond Butler, John Pomara, and Narong Tintamusik.
