Area Events

VAST Critiques

The Visual Art Society of Texas (VAST) is open for members who want to be inspired by other artists and enlightened to grow in your art. Jo Williams, a noted art instructor and painter for 40-plus years critiques two pieces from each artist once a month in a large open classroom in Corinth at Global Spheres facility. We are socially distanced and wear masks until the pandemic is over. We will be starting the spring semester Jan. 21 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Usually, the meeting is the fourth Thursday of every month. The fee is $60 for January thru May. If interested, visitors can come one free time, but please contact Jackie Haugen at 972.672.0188 or email her at waterjourney@verizon.net for details.

For the Love of Art

Founded in 1992, the group has grown from 16 members to over 100 - embracing as diverse and talented a group of artists as can be found in North

Texas and Southern Oklahoma. As a nonprofit organization, GAVA has two primary goals: promote the visual arts and raise funds for annual art scholarships. These scholarships are distributed to local graduating seniors who wish to pursue a career in a form of visual art - applications from students in Cooke County have increased every year.

The Gainesville community and beyond has rallied behind GAVA by supporting two annual art shows each year. For the Love of ART is the primary fundraiser for the scholarships, held each February at the historic State Theatre in Gainesville. This year's virtual event will be held Feb. 5-26. Entry details can be found here.

Artist Opportunities

Horizon Unitarian Universalist Church

1641 W. Hebron Pkwy, Carrollton

Horizon Unitarian Universalist Church supports the visual arts in our community. We wish to enhance the spiritual experience in our sanctuary by exhibiting the work of local artists. The artist would need to have 15-20 large to medium works of art, depending on size. 2-dimensional art only, ready to hang with wire. Each exhibition is six weeks. Any work sold generates a 20% commission to the church. Any theme or subject matter would be considered. If you wish to submit work for consideration, please send a web link or email images to HorizonArt@HorizonUU.org.

Main St. Cafe (formerly Tierney's Café and Tavern)

208 East Main Street, Lewisville

The Mil Street Cafe (formerly Tierney's) will have the same art work as hung in January until further notice. Wanda Grice, Sunny Raschke and Nancy Busey have their art work gracing the walls. The later rotations will be worked out in the near future.
