Area Studio Tour

Cross Timbers Artists Guild - 18th Annual Artist Studio Tour Nov. 9-10, 2019

The members of the Cross Timbers Artists Guild cordially invite you to participate in their 18th Annual Artists Studio Tour!

The purpose of the Tour is to give the public an opportunity to get to know local artists, to observe their creative process first hand, and to create a sense of community among area artists, their neighbors, and the local businesses that support the arts. Since the first tour in 2002, the organization has grown from 6 charter artists to 26 in this year's studio tour - including new artists - which expands the group's wide range of disciplines such as painting, sculpture, ceramics, jewelry, clay, glass, fiber, furniture and even musical instruments. Providing a platform for art education in a neighborhood setting, each artist looks forward to sharing their art, knowledge, and talent with their communities. Maps for the event are accessible through the web site www.crosstimbersarts.com and at each location.

The Opening Reception and the Tour is FREE and open to the public.

The New Photography Collective began as a group of photographers in the DFW metroplex who were interested in discussing their new work with like-minded artists. David Brown, Amy Holmes George and Frank Lopez initiated the group by asking accomplished artists and friends whose work they admired, and the collective grew to a dozen contemporary artists in the North Texas area.

The exhibit features a diversity of technique and materials, with examples of traditional realistic photography, montage, abstraction, staged images, and state-of-the-art technology. Their work illustrates that the definition of "photography" has broadened considerably in contemporary use.
