

GIBEONITES AS JESUS

- The Gibeonites faced death from the hands of Israel as they were commanded to kill them by God.
- Jesus faced death from the hands of Israel (Jew and Gentile) as by God's decree they killed him.
- After this, the Gibeonites hid themselves from the eyes of the people of Israel (through deception and pretending not to be their neighbours).
- After this, Jesus was hidden in the tomb from the eyes of all Israel.
- On the third day, the Gibeonites who faced death and were hidden lived.
- On the third day Jesus who died and was hidden in the tomb lived.
- The Gibeonites lived so wrath will not come upon Israel.
- Jesus lived to remove God's wrath from all Israel (Jew and Gentile).
- The Gibeonites then became servants of Israel forever and were in a covenant with them.
- Jesus then serves us Israel (Jew and Gentile) forever as we are in covenant with him.
