

JOASH AS A TYPE OF CHRIST (PART 1)

- Joash was not only the son of the king but also a son of King David. Jesus was also the son of King David.
- The ruler of the people, Athaliah, sought to kill all the King's sons including Joash; the ruler of the people, Pilate killed some including Jesus.
- Joash was taken from the midst of dead ones and then hidden for some time; Jesus was taken from the midst of 2 dead ones and hidden in a tomb for some time.
- In the seventh year, Joash who was assumed dead was found alive and seen by the leaders of the people first, then by the whole congregation who then proclaimed that Joash lives; at the end of the seventh day, Jesus who was assumed dead was found alive first by the elders of the church, then, the multitude of the church who then proclaimed that Jesus lives.
- Joash was crowned as king and messiah; Jesus was crowned as king and messiah.
- The news about Joash being alive was heard (by Athaliah); the news of Jesus being alive was also heard.
- The people of the land rejoiced and lived quietly; the church rejoiced, and all lived in peace.
