

PAUL AS A TYPE OF CHRIST (PART 2)

- Paul went about doing good and performing miracles; Jesus went about doing good and performing miracles.
- The people were initially receptive to Paul but later turned against him; the people were also initially receptive to Jesus but later turned against him.
- The Jews and gentiles were responsible for killing Paul; the Jews and gentiles were also responsible for killing Jesus.
- The death of Paul and Jesus were instigated by Jews.
- Paul and Jesus were brought outside the city to die.
- Both Paul and Jesus arose after their death.
- They were both first seen and witnessed alive by the disciples.
- The gospel preached by Paul then went to a different city, Derbe, just like the gospel of Jesus which was preached by the disciples then went to the gentiles in different lands.
