

ISHMAEL AS JESUS

Ishmael

- An angel from God was sent to Hagar
- He announced the birth of a son to her
- He gave the name of the son
- He spoke about the destiny of the son
- Sarah requests that the son, Ishmael, should be sent out of the house (to die)
- Abraham initially didn't want to listen to her
- After God convincing him to do it, he finally listened to her and sent him out to a place where he'll "die"
- Ishmael was left to die, and his mother didn't want to look upon his death
- God heard Ishmael's voice
- Ishmael is then raised up from his death
- After his lifting up God promises to make him multiply
- Notice also that Ismael had 12 princes i.e. rulers, come from him

Jesus

- An angel from God was sent to Mary
- He announced the birth of a son to her
- He gave the name of the son
- He spoke about the destiny of the son
- The leaders of Israel request that Jesus should be sent out of Jerusalem to die
- Pilate initially did not want to listen to them
- After much pressure from the people, he finally listened to them and sent Jesus out to a place he'll die
- Jesus was left to die
- God heard his voice from the grave
- God's spirit then raised Jesus from the dead
- After his resurrection, he multiplied by receiving Jews and Gentiles
- Notice also that Jesus had 12 disciples i.e. rulers of his kingdom
