

JAIRUS'S DAUGHTER AS JESUS

Jairus's Daughter

- A ruler, Jairus had only one daughter
- As she lay dying, her father was not with her but had left her
- She died in the absence of her father's presence
- There was a crowd gathered which saw her dead
- After the crowd was put away, she, who was dead, arose and there were only few that witnessed her coming back to life
- Her parents who witnessed her coming back to life were astonished
- They were commanded not to tell anyone what had happened
- Afterwards, the news about her death and how she had come back to life spread out from the house into all the land

Jesus

- The ruler, God had only one son
- As he lay dying, his father was not with him but had left him i.e., forsaken him
- He died in the absence of his father's presence
- A crowd of Jews and gentiles gathered as they saw his death
- After the crowd was dispersed, Jesus who was dead arose and only a few witnessed his resurrection
- His disciples who witnessed his resurrection were astonished, thinking they had seen a spirit
- Jesus told them not to tell anyone but to remain at Jerusalem till the Holy Spirit comes, then they could spread the message
- Afterwards the news about his death and how he had come back to life spread out from Jerusalem into all the world
