- Notice this is around the time of Passover

- Peter was sleeping bound between 2 soldiers (sleep is synonymous for death in the bible. Check out the verses on screen)
- He was naked (because put on his clothes later)
- He was struck in his side
- This happened outside the city because later he proceeded to the city via the Iron Gate
- He then arose
- At the entrance of the house, he is met by a woman, Rhoda
- She was happy and ran and told the others in the house who didn't believe her
- They thought it wasn't him but rather his angel
- When he came into the house and they saw him, they were astonished
- He calms them down with a sign of his hand (beckoning to them with the hand)
