- She was a widow, so she had no husband yet had a son
- The son was the only son/child
- He was weak and died
- The son died on account of the mother's sins
- After his death he was taken somewhere private(chamber) which belonged to someone else
- On the third time of Elijah stretching on him, the child lived
- He was then seen by a woman after his rising from death
- The mother was convinced by the one who raised her son from death and knew God's word was true

Jesus

- Mary had no husband, yet she gave birth to a son
- Jesus was the only begotten son
- He was weak and strengthless before his death
- He died on account of our sins
- After his death he was taken to the tomb which was a private place and belonged to someone else
- On the third day (which is a time) he rose and lived
- He was then seen by a woman after his resurrection
- We are convinced by God who raised Jesus from death and know his word is true
