From the President: It's crunch time for Wilkes County Quilt Guild members, that are entering quilts in our 2019 Quilt Show, Love, Laugh, Quilt. The Quilt Show deadline keeps me focused on completing my entries for the show. I am a great quilt starter, but tend to get side tracked, when I see another quilt I want to make. As we all know, it takes many hours to make a quilt from start to finish. My Sister-in-law recently said, if someone makes you a quilt, they really love you. I agree. Yes, I put my time and love in every stitch. And Lynn Osborne, our Quilt Show Chairman, will be happy to know, my two quilts and challenge piece are all completed, with labels intact. Having a deadline works for me. I'm looking forward to our upcoming show. Be sure to invite your friends and family and post the dates, time and location on your Facebook page. We want people to come and enjoy the art of quilting with us.

WCQ President

Program Coordinator: Thanks to everyone who participated in the Fabric Sale last month. I hope everyone had a great time and picked up some bargains as well. I realize that many of you are sewing, quilting and scurrying to get your quilts done for the quilt show, but then what? Before you know it you'll be thinking and planning what quilt you want to do next. Our August speaker might just inspire you with her presentation, "All About Modern Quilts!"

Just a reminder to tell you all that this Wednesday, August 21 is hand group at the library. Treat yourself to a calm, carefree couple hours doing what you love. Invitation from Ashe County Piecemakers Quilt Guild

I am writing to ask if any of your ladies would like to join us on Friday, September 27, 2019, for a bus trip to the Asheville Quilt Show. We have a 55 passenger bus that should be comfortable. We will be leaving the Senior Center in Jefferson at 8am and will be leaving Asheville at 5pm, stopping for dinner along the way home. If interested, the bus could pick up and drop you off in North Wilkesboro. The cost would be $20 per person, and that includes a discounted ticket to the quilt show, if you get back to me in time to order them in bulk.

My home phone number is (336) 877-5399 and my cell is (336) 469-2282. All checks can be made out to me, and my address is P. O. Box 207, Glendale Springs, NC 28629.

If you have any questions about this e-mail, you can call our guild president, Ces Robison at (336)982-4748. We are all looking forward to coming down for your quilt show on September 6th to get some great ideas and enjoy all your beautiful quilts.

Thanks so much,
Mary Rodgers
