

Wilkes County Quilter's 2022 Quilt Show

"Quilting Timeless Treasures"

Registration Form Information

- Registration Deadline: Form due (descriptions may be emailed) Tuesday, July 26th (Guild meeting) with actual quilts due Thursday, September 8th between 8:00-10:00 AM at the Stone Center. Incomplete forms do not register your quilt for the show. Turn in one registration form for each quilt, limit 3 per member (Challenge Quilt is not considered to be one of the 3 quilts). Guild member must make quilt top. Every entry must be quilted (including the "Challenge" quilt!) Any changes must be made by phone or email by Sunday, August 14th. Please ensure that the measurements you submit are accurate. You may designate another person to deliver your quilt within the specified times.
- A completed registration form is also needed for your Challenge piece. This does not count as one of your 3 quilts. Please use the actual "Challenge" Registration Form.
- Quilts displayed in any previous Wilkes Quilt Show are not eligible.
- Quilts WILL NOT require a hanging sleeve. If your quilt is longer than 90" please fold bottom up to a 90" length and pin it. A label identifying the maker must be stitched or securely attached to the back lower left edge of each piece.
- Incomplete, torn, odorous, or soiled quilts (must be free of pet hair and lint) will not qualify for entry or exhibition. Take the necessary time to "freshen up" your quilt so it is in display condition, if necessary, prior to September 8th.
- Wilkes County Quilters, the quilt show committee members, or the Stone Center, are not responsible for lost or damaged items.
- Quilts will be taken down and brought over to the checkout desk only by an appointed committee member and must be properly "checked out" at the end of the show.
- The Quilt Show committee reserves the right to move a quilt to a different category if necessary for continuity of the show.
