Did You Know?

The library houses the Coles County Social Service Navigator office on the top floor. The Social Service Navigator program is available to members of the community that may need help with resources such as: basic needs and transportation assistance, SNAP and medical application assistance, affordable internet assistance, and free cell phone assistance.

Hours: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday 10am-3pm, and Saturday 10am-2pm.

Phone & Email: 217-246-0444 or navigator@charlestonlibrary.org

You have the option to receive eReceipts (what items you've checked out with their due dates) or notifications (the library will notify you when you have items ready to be picked up or items overdue) by text or email! You also have the options to receive e-newsletters and have your reading history maintained.

Let library staff know and we will change it on your account.

Our Seed Library (top floor of the library) is being restocked with seed packets for all of your spring planting needs! Seeds are available for checkout for anyone 18 or older and you must have a library card. You can either check out a whole packet or use our seed envelopes if you only want a portion of seeds. All seed checkouts are done at the Information Desk on the top floor. Happy planting!

As always, parental supervision is advised.

Craft an interactive hungry Crocodile Finger Puppet to chomp at 5 little monkeys! Supplies you will need at home to complete the craft;

I'm participating in 1000 Books Before Kindergarten to help me be a lifelong reader! Ask a librarian how you can participate and put your handprint in our 1000 Book Forest!

For Teens

Teen Buttons

Tuesday, March 7

4:00pm-5:00pm

Limit of 2 buttons per student.

Keep it clean, keep it kind!

For Young Adults

Young Adult Buttons

Tuesday, March 14

4:00pm-5:00pm

Meet at the adult computers on the top floor (1B by elevator). Young Adults, EIU, and LLC students are invited to drop by the Library to create custom buttons to wear and share. If you would like to plan your buttons beforehand to move through the process quicker, use any program (or freehand!) to place your art work/image in a 1.75 inch circle leaving a small blank space between your art and the circle. Wherever you choose to design your buttons, we can print your pin images in color for free at the library, or you can come with them printed and ready to place in the button maker. We do not have wifi printing so be sure you can forward your designs to print. Limit of 2 buttons per student.

Illinois Libraries Present:

The Weird & Wonderful World with

Mary Roach

Wednesday, March 1, 7 p.m.

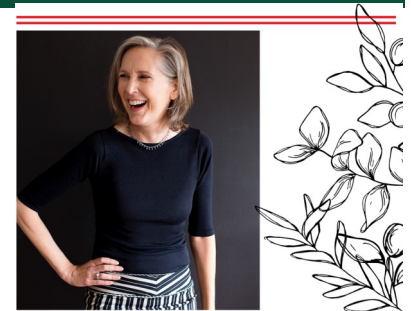

Join us on Zoom / Register at www.charlestonlibrary.org

Join us for the entertaining and hilarious New York Times best-selling science author, Mary Roach! Mary is the author of Stiff: The Curious Lives of Human Cadavers; Gulp: Adventures on the Alimentary Canal, and Packing for Mars: The Curious Science of Life in the Void. Her newest book Fuzz: When Nature Breaks the Law, debuted September 2021.

Roach will discuss her frank approach to science, the importance of humor, and explore the weird, wonderful world in which we live. She has been dubbed "America's funniest science writer" by the Washington Post. Roach has explored topics from the curious lives of human cadavers, packing to visit space, the afterlife, the alimentary canal, and more. Roach claims to have no hobbies, but enjoys bird-watching, hiking, playing scrabble, and watching late-night Animal Planet. You won't want to miss this evening!

This event will feature live captioning in keeping with our commitment to accessibility and inclusion.

This event is presented in partnership with Illinois Libraries Present, a collaborative effort designed to bring virtual events with bestselling, esteemed, and diverse speakers to library patrons across the state.

The Fabelmans (PG-13)

Wednesday, March 15

1:00pm

Rotary Room B

Inspired by true events, the narrative follows Sammy Fabelman on a journey of self-discovery. At the age of seven, Sammy lives a simple life with his parents Burt and Mitzi. After finding out an unsettling family secret, Sammy falls in love with cinema and its power to tell stories.

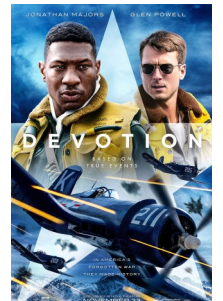

Devotion (PG-13)

Wednesday, March 22

1:00pm

Rotary Room B

American Navy fighter pilots Lieutenant Tom Hudner and Ensign Jesse Brown worked together during the Korean War to protect their country. Brown, who became the first African American carrier pilot in the Navy, built a bond with his wingman Hudner. The heroic sacrifices of the two elite pilots make history. Based on a true story.
