About Sunday Jazz in the Park

Sunday Jazz in the Park is a free monthly concert series held October-April at the beautiful Memorial Park on East Ocean Blvd. in Stuart, FL. Each event unites hundreds of people through music, cultural connection, and family-friendly fun. With your support, we can continue making these concerts accessible to everyone.

Why Sunday Jazz in the Park Matters

Sunday Jazz in the Park isn't just about music — it's about belonging. At a time when our world feels divided, these free community concerts offer something rare: a space where everyone can come together, regardless of age, culture, or background, and feel the same rhythm, the same joy, the same unity.

By Supporting Sunday Jazz in the Park, You're Helping!

Keep live music free and accessible for families in our community.

Provide pay for local musicians, keeping the arts alive.

Create safe, family-friendly afternoons filled with culture, connection, and joy.

Build bridges across cultures through the universal language of music.

This is more than a concert series,
it's a grassroots movement to unite our community, one song at a time.

About Music for Unity

Our Mission is Clear:

Honoring DIVERSITY. Inspiring UNITY. Powered by MUSIC.

Through free concerts, cultural programs, and community events, we create opportunities for all ages and backgrounds to connect, celebrate diversity, and share in the joy of live performance. At Music for Unity, we believe that when we

Share the Music ❤️ Share the Love, we build stronger, more connected communities.
