AT THE BREWERY

THE MODERN TAKE ON AN OLD CLASSIC

Nestled in the heart of history, Hilden House combines timeless charm with contemporary style, creating the perfect setting for relaxed, intimate gatherings with family and friends. Located on the grounds of the oldest independent brewery in Ireland, Hilden Brewery, this unique venue is steeped in character and legacy. Originally established in 1981 by Ann and Seamus Scullion, the brewery resides within the 19th-century courtyard of Hilden House, a historic home with a remarkable past. Once the residence of Helen Barbour, daughter of Milne Barbour, the house holds a romantic legacy of its own—Helen celebrated her wedding here after marrying Thomas Andrews, the visionary designer of the Titanic. Whether you're drawn to its rich heritage or its relaxed modern vibe, Hilden House offers an unforgettable backdrop for your special day.
