

BLACK WORKERS MATTER

PUT YOUR MONEY WHERE YOUR MOUTH IS

JULY 20
8:30 AM

Meet Up:
Forbes Ave & McKee Pl
Oakland

Socially distanced protest on foot and in cars!

Every one of us, regardless of where we live or what we look like, want our families to be whole and our communities to be vibrant. We want wages we can live on, affordable healthcare, and paid family leave. We want America to be a place where freedom is for everyone.

Working people are suffering under a three-pronged crisis—systemic racism and unchecked police brutality, a public health emergency that's ravaging communities of color, and a rigged economy that only works for the very few at the top.

Join us on July 20, at 8:30 am for a socially distanced protest at Forbes Avenue and McKee Place in Oakland. We will demand action from corporations and the government to dismantle white supremacy and to ensure the health, safety, and economic well-being of every worker.

If you don't have a mask; we will provide you with one!
