Welcome to The Woodlands Family Counseling Center. We are pleased that you have selected our family and we look forward to helping your family. Please carefully read the information below and initial next to each section indicating you understand the information provided.

CONSENT FOR TREATMENT

Initial Here

Informed consent is a document that describes the treatment processes, policies and procedures, fee structures, client and therapist responsibilities, and numerous other topics involved in the counseling process. Although providing this document is part of an ethical obligation to our profession, more importantly, it is part of our commitment to you to keep you fully informed of every part of your therapeutic experience. Please know that your relationship with your therapist or group leader is a collaborative one, and we welcome any questions, comments, or suggestions regarding your course of therapy at any time.

OTHER FEES

_____

Preparation of summaries of treatment or letters (i.e. for medical doctors or schools) at request of client will be billed at $150 per item requested.

PAYMENT FOR MINORS

Initial Here

Parents or guardians accompanying minors are responsible for payment of co-pays or balances at the time of service. If a minor is accompanied by an adult other than a parent or guardian, payment is still expected at the time of service. For unaccompanied minors, charges MUST be pre-authorized to an approved credit card, or paid by cash or check prior to, or at the time of service.

LITIGATION LIMITATION

Initial Here

TWFCC does NOT provide disability determination, custody studies, or handle court issues. It is agreed that should there be legal proceedings (such as, but not limited to divorce and custody disputes, injuries, lawsuits, etc.), neither you (client) nor your attorney, nor anyone else acting on your behalf will call on your therapist to testify in court or at any other proceedings, nor will a disclosure of the psychotherapy records be requested.

- TWFCC providers do not perform court evaluations nor do they appear in court on behalf of individuals, children or adults. TWFCC services are designed to assist in alleviating problems through individual or relational psychotherapy. TWFCC providers are not trained for, nor do they maintain records with the intended purpose of court involvement.
- In addition, the legal process is such that we may be compelled to reveal information about you that could affect you negatively or undermine your relationship with your therapist. Because the client-therapist relationship is built on trust with the foundation of that trust being confidentiality, it is often damaging to the therapeutic relationship for the therapist to be asked to present records to the court, testify whether factual or in an expert nature, in court or deposition.
- However, should your therapist opinion be so ordered, fees will be charged at the rate of $300 per hour, portal to portal (meaning this includes, but is not limited to, all time

	involved for preparation, parking, mileage, travel time to and from court, and all other expenses involved in testifying). This fee will apply as well to depositions or interrogatories. Records review, consultation with clients, litigants, attorneys (in person, via phone or by email), reports, waiting at court or any other service provided will be charged at the rate of $175 per hour or prorated accordingly. These fees are payable in advance. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ The client further agrees to pay a retainer fee of $1,250.00 two weeks prior to the appearance, presentation of records, or testimony requested.</li> </ul>

CONFIDENTIALITY AND RECORDS

Initial Here	The information you share with your counselor both written and verbally is part of your Protected Health Information (PHI) and is considered confidential. If the client is a minor, it is the legal right of the parents to have access to the information we discuss in our sessions. Detailed information regarding PHI and limitations of confidentiality are located in the Privacy Notice. There are some exceptions to confidentiality in which therapists are legally required to take protective action and to reveal information about a client. Those include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Allegations of sexual abuse, physical abuse, or neglect of a child, disabled person, or someone who is vulnerable and unable to leave the place of abuse due to institutionalization. Texas Law requires that all allegations of abuse be reported to law enforcement or the Department of Family and Children Services in the county where the client lives.</li> <li>➤ A situation where a client poses a danger to self or others.</li> <li>➤ Counselors are bound by the Duty to Warn when a client has made threats of violence toward a third party or when a third party has made threats of violence toward the client.</li> <li>➤ When a judge orders that information be disclosed. We cannot guarantee that an appeal will be upheld, but we will do everything in my power not to disclose your confidential information.</li> </ul>

UNATTENDED CHILDREN

Initial Here	We are unable to provide supervision for children in the waiting room and cannot accept responsibility for their safety if left unattended. For the safety and welfare of the children and out of consideration for others, please make arrangements for childcare during therapy sessions, or provide adult supervision for children while waiting in the waiting room.

EFFECTS OF COUNSELING

	Therapy is the process of solving emotional problems by talking with a professional trained to help you achieve a more fulfilling individual life, marital/couple relationship, or family relationships. The process of change begins by first clearly defining the problem, and then discussing your thoughts and feelings, understanding the origin of the difficulty and developing new skills and healthy attitudes about yourself and others. Additionally, at times people find that they feel somewhat worse when they first start therapy before they begin to feel better. This may occur as you begin discussing certain sensitive areas of your life. However, a topic usually isn't sensitive unless it needs attention. Therefore, discovering the discomfort is actually a success. Once you and your therapist are able to target your specific treatment needs and the particular modalities that work the best for you, help is generally on the way. Please also be aware that changes made in therapy may affect other people in your life. For example, an increase in your assertiveness may not always be welcomed by others. It is our intention to help you manage changes in your interpersonal relationships as they arise, but it is important for you to be aware of this possibility, nonetheless.

CONSENT FOR TREATMENT FOR OF MINORS

Client name: _____ DOB: _____

This is to certify that I give permission to The Woodlands Family Counseling Center (TW FCC) for my child’s participation in therapy. When a minor is the client, parents may be requested to participate in treatment through family sessions or parenting sessions.

Confidentiality for Minor Clients:

I believe that it is important to work with the family while preserving the adolescent’s right to confidentiality. Treatment can be impeded if an adolescent/teen does not feel that they have a private place to talk about concerns. However, I do believe that parents/guardians are an integral part of your child’s life and the therapeutic process and I encourage communication between you, your child, and myself. Parents have a legal right to request information and records about their child’s treatment; however, privacy allows children and adolescents to better benefit from the therapy process as they can more openly express themselves.

Litigation Limitations: (this is also found in the New Client Information Form)

- TW FCC does NOT provide disability determination, custody studies, or handle court issues. It is agreed that should there be legal proceedings (such as, but not limited to divorce and custody disputes, injuries, lawsuits, etc.), neither you (client) nor your attorney, nor anyone else acting on your behalf will call on your therapist to testify in court or at any other proceedings, nor will a disclosure of the psychotherapy records be requested.

TW FCC services are designed to assist in alleviating problems through individual or relational psychotherapy. TW FCC providers are not trained for, nor do they maintain records with the intended purpose of court involvement.

Records review, consultation with clients, litigants, attorneys (in person, via phone or by email), reports, waiting at court or any other service provided will be charged at the rate of $175 per hour or prorated accordingly. These fees are payable in advance.

➤ The client further agrees to pay a retainer fee of $1,250.00 two weeks prior to the appearance, presentation of records, or testimony requested.
