Cops & Kids / Christmas Giving Tree

Cops & Kids is a Christmas-time event that gives children who will not receive Christmas gifts due to financial hardship or other extenuating circumstances, or who have experienced a traumatic event over the past year, the opportunity to shop for gifts with Romeoville Police Officers and members of our Lodge at no expense to the children or their families.

If more kids are nominated than can be accommodated at our Cops & Kids event, a "Giving Tree" will be placed in the Romeoville Police Department lobby to benefit additional children in similar circumstances. The identities of the children participating will be anonymous to the Givers, but basic information to help determine appropriate gifts will be noted on the tree tags. Depending on the logistics of the Cops & Kids event, the Giving Tree may not be used.
