Family Reunion.

Last Thursday was the day set for the Brentlinger reunion. The morning was cloudy, cold and unpleasant, but nevertheless the crowd commenced gathering as early as seven o'clock. There was not much done until eight o'clock, when all hands laid hold, and in less than one hour there were stands, seats, and a table one hundred feet long, all ready to be filled. By ten o'clock the relatives and neighbors began filling up the table, and by half past eleven o'clock this long and wide table was ready to break down with the luxuries of life. The good women of Perry and Union township knows how to arrange such tables as the county can't beat. At twelve o'clock, Mr. Motter, Allen county's Prosecuting Attorney, conducted the people to the table. When all was ready Rev. Berry, of Lima, offered thanks.

MORNING SERVICES.

The morning services were opened by song by the choir, scripture reading and prayer by Rev. Hunton, of Lima, followed by a song. Mr. Motter was then called for and he made an eloquent speech. Tracing man from creation down to present time After this the crowd was dismissed until after dinner.

The afternoon services began at one o'clock with music by the choir of the Christian church of Uniopolis, Auglaize county, O. Never was there a time that music was better than at this time. Mr. Golden, the leader of the choir, and his son, who played the instrument, know how to arrange these things, so the birds in the air will have to seek for new songs.

There were two speeches in the afternoon, one by Rev. Hunton and Mr. Motter; also a short speech by Mr Copeland, the author of the Copeland reunion, who spoke touchingly on points of pioneer life.

The reunion was on the old Stevenson farm, one mile south of Amherst it being owned by Susanna, the oldest Brentlinger living, and it is as fine a ground as ever a table was set on. The shade was furnished by black walnut trees. Thus more than two hundred people enjoyed the place.

Among those present from a distance were Mr. William Brentlinger, wife and son, of Dayton, O; Mr. John Beason and wife, of Dayton, O, William Wells and wife, of Vandalia, O; George Carr, daughter and granddaughter, of Troy, O. Thus the day was spent, and at four o'clock all went home, only to wait till the first Thursday in September of next year.

ADDRESSED

The Big Crowd at the Copeland Reunion.

Over 1,000 Members of the Family and Friends were Present at Waynesfield Gathering.

Attorney W. T. Copeland attended the eighteenth annual reunion of the family which was held at Waynesfield last Saturday and was among several who delivered an address to the big gathering which numbered over 1000. Commenting on Mr. Copeland's remarks the Waynesfield Chronicle says:

"Attorney W. T. Copeland, of Lima, gave an address full of wit and original jokes of a timely nature. He had some keen remarks in store for the numerous ministers who, he said, after partaking of a hearty dinner, get up and say nice things about the Copeland's. He asserted that there were all kinds of Copelands and amusingly referred to some, even bearing the African complexion, he had met in his travels throughout the different parts of the country. He closed with the thought that as Copelands they must stand on their own merits, regardless of ancestry, if they would gain a seat on the right hand of the great throne above."

On and after Monday, September 9, dairymen of Lima, will sell milk for 25 cents per gallon, retail, and 20 cents per gallon, wholesale. 0-2t*

Wapakoneta, Ohio, July 31.—The third annual meeting of the Ohio State Holiness association, commonly called "camp meeting" will be held at Mt. Lookout seven miles east of here, commencing tomorrow and closing August 10. Rev. B. Carradine, D. D., of St. Louis, Mo., will have charge of the work and will be assisted by Rev. R. H. Balmer, Mt. Gilead, Ohio; Rev. R. E. Carter, of Toledo: Rev. J. W. Hill, D. D., of Ada: Rev. F. W. Stanforn, Hicksville; Rev. E. T. Bowdle, Lima: Rev. John Parlette, Anna, and Rev. W. H. Grindle, of Ada. The musical part of the meeting will be conducted by Rev. C. E. Rowley, conference evangelist of the M. E. church, Central Ohio Conference, and will be assisted by Mrs. C. E. Rowly. This is the third meeting of the association at this place, which is situated upon a high hill overlooking all the surrounding country.

The fourth district Republican farce to nominate a candidate to oppose Harvey C. Garber will be held at Sidney, September 2nd, as decided by John L. Sullivan, chairman of the congressional committee. The committee is composed of Sullivan, St. Marys; D. C. Richmond, Allen; C. W. Harbour, Shelby; William Halley, Darke, and F. A. Robinson, Mercer. Mayor L. H. Rogers, of Lima, has been chosen temporary chairman, and C. S. Younger, of Celina, temporary secretary. The basis of representation is one delegate for each 250 votes cast for Nash in 1901, or fraction of 125, this giving Auglaize county, 10, Allen, 20; Darke, 18; Mercer, 6, and Shelby, 10, a total of 64 votes, 33 of which will be necessary to a choice. No one predicts a deadlock in this convention.

Much sorrow was felt here when the news of the accidental drowning of Rev. W. H. Leatherman reached here. He was pastor of the M. E. church of this city for a number of years and was loved by all his flock. When here one of his characteristics was his regard for the children.

Ohio State Holiness Association Closes a Successful Session of Two Weeks—Damage Suit Filed—Other News.

Wapakoneta, Ohio, Aug. 11.—The Dayton Nationals were defeated yesterday by the Wapakoneta Reds but the game was very close and exciting. While a number of balls were batted into outfield there were no two base hits and earned runs were scarce. Sealts and Pfenning played the game without errors but the support was poor, both teams seeming to have an off day. Cassidy and Guese made several nice stops in outfield, and Guese brought in two runs by interfering with the catcher.

The case of C. A. Ramge vs. George F. Freyman, before justice of the peace M. M. Rogers, for damage by trespass of cattle to growing crops, was heard Saturday afternoon, and plaintiff given judgment for $7.50, the amount asked, and costs. Judgment went by default, defendant not appearing, but the case will be appealed to the common pleas court.

W. B. Bliss, commonly known as "Colonel Bliss," of St. Johns, was one of the judges at Piqua the past week, and has served in like capacity in the races of the Wapakoneta Jockey club, and the races of the Lima Jockey club, giving entire satisfaction at all the meets. Mr. Bliss has been selected as a judge on the ninety day race circuit next year, and he well deserves the honor, having the reputation of being one of the most fair minded men that ever judged a race, and being well versed in all race topics and rules. He has owned many fine animals and still has horses at his home, east of here.

The third annual session of the Ohio State Holiness association, being held at Mt. Lookout, east of here seven miles, closed last night after being in session since August 1. The meeting, known as "camp-meetin" was held in a large tabernacle erected several years ago for that purpose and which is capable of sheltering three to four thousand persons. Large crowds have attended each night and many from this city were there last night and Saturday night. The celebrated and well known evangelist Rev. B. Carradine, of St. Louis, Mo., was in charge of the meeting and people attended from all the country round to hear his sermons, which are said to be among the best ever delivered in the tabernacle. COPELAND

Reunion Elected a Lima Relative President.

The Copeland family held their nineteenth annual reunion last Saturday at the grove dedicated for this purpose years ago, by Joseph Copeland, who with his brothers, Madison, Wesley, William and James, originated the annual meetings. A large crowd gathered in the forenoon and several hundred gathered round tables groaning with good things to eat. Dinner was hardly commenced, however, when a heavy rain set in, lasting only long enough to spoil the eatables prepared, and keep away many visitors who intended to come in the afternoon. Members of the family were present from Mercer and Shelby counties and from parts of Indiana. The program was very extensive and interesting. The forenoon session was opened by a song followed by invocation. Election of officers was then held. W. T. Copeland, of Lima, succeeding Joseph Clawson, as president.

COPELAND REUNION

Enjoyed for the Twenty Third Time Down in the by Grove.

A THOUSAND PRESENT

Including Members from a Half Dozen Counties in Northwest.

The annual reunion of the Copeland family, which has been meeting year after year in the Copeland grove, east of Wapakoneta, was held this year at Mt. Lookout. More than one thousand of the members of that family, with their friends, were present, but of all the old members, but one was present. That one was James Copeland, Sr. Two of the other first members, Wesley and William, could not attend because of declining health. Copelands were present from all the surrounding counties and the reunion was marked by the usual enthusiasm. An elegant repast was served on tables spread beneath the trees and in the afternoon an entertaining program was rendered.

The program was opened by a song followed by the invocation by Rev. K. L. Smith. Addresses were delivered by Harold Chafman, Rev. William Miller, Rev. Daniel Miller and Charles E. Morris. There were recitations by Ada Rostorfer, Ava Harrod and Essie Harrod and musical selections were given. Sylvia Allen rendered a beautiful solo. The singing by the Harrod Pastime quartette and Lex Copeland and daughters was especially interesting. The pioneer talk was given by Rev. William Miller, who from personal experience, told of the time when this section of the state was youthful and in his quaint and striking manner, contrasted the part with the present, paying a tribute to the pioneer Copelands.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, E. B. Copeland; Vice President, Joseph Clawson; Secretary and Treasurer, H. T. Lusk.

Following is the executive committee: Bert Copeland, Johathan Copeland, Rebecca Patterson, Clyde Copeland, Frank Harrod, Raymuth Copeland, Walter Harrod, Alfa Copeland

Committee on music: Sylvia Allen, Mrs. Dr E. A. Bobo, Amer Copeland, Walter Harrod and Ray Harrod.

The next reunion will be held on the last Saturday of August, 1906.

Study shows TV requires time

STORRS, Conn. (AP) — An experimental study at the University of Connecticut has concluded that there is no clear evidence that transcendental meditation — TM — has any therapeutic effects in the first two months of practice.

That was the length of a comparative study of 61 students assigned either to a TM course, a training program in muscle relaxation or a control group receiving no treatment by David C. Zuroff for a master's thesis. He examined the effects of TM on muscle relaxation, anxiety, maladjustment and drug use.

Afterward all were subjected to various psychological measurement techniques. Zuroff says the findings were that TM had no effect on the subjects' scores on psychological maladjustment, frequency of drunkenness or marijuana use.
