

DAY 29 — RECEIVE AND GIVE

PRAYER | 1 Peter 4:10–11 · 2 Corinthians 1:3–7 · Matthew 10:7–8 · James 1:17

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for every good and perfect gift that comes from Your hand. Thank You for Your faithfulness, Your mercy, and the many ways You have provided for us, even when we did not recognize what we were receiving.

Lord, help us see that the gifts, opportunities, wisdom, and experiences You have entrusted to us are not meant to be kept for ourselves alone. Teach us to be faithful stewards of Your grace, using what You have given us to serve others and bring glory to Your name.

Thank You for being the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort. In our troubles, remind us that You are near. As You comfort and strengthen us, give us tender hearts to recognize the pain of others and the willingness to offer the same compassion we have received.

Keep us from pride, selfishness, and the desire for recognition. When we speak, let our words reflect Your truth and grace. When we serve, let us rely on the strength You provide rather than our own. Help us give freely, without keeping score or expecting repayment.

Father, show us what we have been given and what You are inviting us to do with it. Give us wisdom to know when to speak, when to listen, when to help, and when simply to be present. May gratitude shape our receiving and love guide our giving.

As we make room for Your heart, let Your generosity flow through our lives so that others may see Your goodness and praise You.

In Jesus' name, Amen.
