

DAY 24 — OBEDIENCE

MAKE ROOM FOR GOD'S HEART | PRAYER & FASTING

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for speaking through Your Word and for loving me enough to invite me into a life that reflects Your heart. Thank You that I do not have to earn Your presence through perfect performance. You have given me Your Spirit to guide, strengthen, and teach me.

Lord, forgive me for the times I have mistaken knowing what is right for actually doing it. Forgive me when I have delayed obedience with more questions, more plans, or more explanations because the next step felt uncomfortable. Show me where I have offered You activity instead of surrendering my choices to You.

Renew my mind and soften my heart. Help me receive Your truth with humility, recognize what You are asking of me, and respond with courage. When obedience requires an apology, give me honesty. When it requires patience, give me endurance. When it requires a boundary, give me wisdom and love. When it requires action, help me move.

Jesus, I want my love for You to be more than words. Teach me to build my life on the foundation of Your teaching, putting into practice what I hear. When storms come, let my faith be rooted in a relationship with You and strengthened by daily faithfulness.

Holy Spirit, bring to mind one clear step I can take today. Help me stop postponing what I already understand. Keep me from confusing obedience to You with pleasing people, and lead me in truth, compassion, and discernment.

May the way I live make room for Your heart. Not for my glory, but because I love You and trust You.

In Jesus' name, amen.
