

A1 PAYEE SERVICES REPRESENTATIVE PAYEE SERVICE

OUR MISSION

The continuing mission of A1 Payee Services in Durham is to ensure our clients obtain the proper quality of life through strategic financial management, and budget planning. We provide money management services for those who are not able to manage their own funds.

OUR GOALS

To ensure basic needs such as food, clothing, shelter, and other personal and medical needs are met.

A1 Payee Services is a bonded, not-for-profit organization founded in an effort to help members of the community who receive income from the Social Security Administration who need help managing their finances. This service is very important to those individuals who have difficulty with, or are unable to manage their finances well, and pay bills on their own. Every individual's situation is unique, and A1 Payee Services structures services to meet each individual's specific needs. This service pays the bills for them to ensure they maintain adequate housing and healthcare, and provides bi-weekly disbursements of the remaining funds to ensure his or her funds last throughout the month.
