STUDENT CONTRACT

COLLEGE NOW at BMCC

I, as a participant in the College Now program, understand that I am expected to:

Attend all class sessions for College Now.

Complete all assignments.

Request tutorial services when needed and attend all sessions.

Participate in mandatory workshops.

In addition,

I must return all borrowed materials such as textbooks, to my College Now liaison/counselor on the last day of class, or upon withdrawing from the course.

Note: If a student intends to withdraw from a class (without academic penalty), proper paperwork must be signed in the BMCC College Now office during the withdrawal period. The textbook must be returned at that time.

Remain focused and have a productive year.

College Now Courses –Spring 2021

All classes will take place on Saturdays (ONLINE)

Critical Thinking CRT 100 3 Credits

Critical Thinking (Same as CRT 100) is designed to develop the mind and help students learn to think clearly and effectively. Through substantive readings, structured writing assignments and ongoing discussions, students will examine concrete examples from their own experience and readings and contemporary issues in the media to learn how to analyze issues, solve problems, and make informed decisions in their academic, professional, and personal lives.

Course Time: 8:30am- 11:26am

General Psychology PSY 100 3 Credits

This course stresses adaptive human behavior in relation to the environment. Topics considered include: origins and methods of psychology, neuropsychological bases of behavior, maturation, motivation, emotion, learning frustration and conflict.

Course Time: 8:30am-11:15am

Developmental Psychology PSY 240 3 Credits

This course explores cognitive, emotional, and behavioral changes across the lifespan. Attention is given to how biological sociocultural factors shape the individual.

Prerequisite: Any student applying to this course MOST have taken PSY 100 (at BMCC and/or at another CUNY College Now program) and earned a B and better as the final grade. Students who have not taken PSY 100 at BMCC and/or at another College Now program will not be considered.

Course Time: 8:30am-11:26am

Fundamentals of Speech SPE 100 3 Credits

The aim of this course is to develop effective skills in speech communication. The student examines how to generate topics and organize ideas, master's elements of audience psychology, and practices techniques of speech presentation in a public forum.

Course Time: 8:30

Withdrawal Policy

COLLEGE NOW at BMCC

Dear Student (& Parent),

Welcome to College!

As a registered student within the College Now program, an official college record and transcript is established. As a college student, you must adhere to all BMCC policies, including: registration and withdrawals procedures. When you apply to the program and are accepted, you are making a commitment to finish the course to the end. Although we understand personal issues might stop you from continuing the program, it is your responsibility to contact the College Now program to properly withdraw from classes and process the necessary documents. To do this, you must set up an appointment, you must contact our office at 212.346.8457 or email Diamond Brooks, Assistant Director of the College Now Program at dbrooks@bmcc.cuny.edu.

After the necessary documents are signed and your textbook has been returned, you will receive a “W” as your final grade in the course. However, please note that students who do not fill out the “Official Withdrawal Form” have not properly withdrawn from the course. As a result, a “WU” (Withdraw Unsatisfactory) grade will be assigned and placed on your transcript as your final grade. A “WU” grade will be calculated in your cumulative grade-point average as a “F.”

We encourage students to NOT withdraw because when students who have receive a “W” and/or “F” as their final grade for their College Now course and plan to attend BMCC for college, it will have an impact on the amount of financial aid you will be able to receive. In addition, receiving a “W” and/or “F” as your final grade, will affect your grade point average, thus this can place a student on academic probation coming into college as a freshmen. As a result, the student must go through an Appeal process and this also prevents a freshmen student from receiving a full financial aid package due to the unsatisfactory grade point average as a freshmen student. For this reason, it is very important that a student commits to the end and/or communicate with our office if any issues that will stop them from attending the program.

Below, you will find the steps that occur within the Appeal Process for a BMCC student:

The process for completing an appeal is as follows:

1. Go to the Registrar's office to pick up the appropriate appeal form for Academic matters (Financial Aid for financial aid matters). A staff member there may ask you for more information to determine if you qualify.
2. Bring the form to the Counseling Center (S-343) to discuss the circumstances. In most cases the counselor will advise you to secure appropriate documentation verifying your situation.
3. Get the appropriate signatures or documentation and meet with a counselor for a recommendation.
4. Return the completed appeal to the Registrar's office.

Please note that the appeal process is somewhat lengthy and may take time to approve. Information and documentation that verifies your situation can expedite the process.

1. If a parent workshop were provided regarding Financial Aid and the Admissions process, would you attend?

2. Would you prefer weekday evenings or Saturday afternoons?

3. Are there any other topics you would like to learn about?

Please feel free to call me or email me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Peter Williams
