

2024 AANBNA Nursing Student Scholarship

We are excited to announce the
2024 Ann Arbor National Black Nurses Association (AANBNA)
Nursing Student Scholarship program.

The mission of the AANBNA is to combat health disparities within the African American community and other minorities by providing ongoing education, raising awareness, mentoring current and future minority healthcare professionals, and creating networking opportunities through collaborations and partnerships.

We aim to foster a strong community of healthcare professionals by offering nursing scholarships and providing opportunities for personal and professional growth.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Applicant must be in an undergraduate or graduate accredited nursing school program.
- Applicant must be enrolled and in good standing, with at least one completed semester in current nursing program.
- Applicant must be a permanent resident of Michigan or attend school in the SE Michigan region.
- Applicant must demonstrate involvement in the community.

Scholarship Award:

- Two scholarship recipients will receive a $750 award for educational or living expenses (i.e., training materials/equipment, childcare expenses, transportation, or other relevant expenses).
- The scholarship is not renewable, but applicants who continue to meet the eligibility criteria can apply each academic year.
- Applicant may not be part of the AANBNA Executive Board or a member of the Scholarship Committee.
