

BVA Marching Band Boosters, Inc.
Bylaws

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be “BVA Marching Band Boosters, Inc.”

ARTICLE II. MISSION

The mission of the BVA Marching Band Boosters, Inc. (hereafter referred to as “the Corporation”) is:

To foster and maintain enthusiastic interest in the various phases of the Marching Band of the Belle Vernon Area High School. The Marching Band is defined as: instrumentalists, auxiliaries (dance team, majorettes, and color guard, as established and determined by the Band Director and/or the School Administration) and band managers.

To lend all possible support-moral, educational, physical and financial-to the Marching Band of the Belle Vernon Area High School, including, but not limited to, providing chaperone and similar type services to the Marching Band, hosting events, providing accessories, items and services for the benefit of the members of the Marching Band based on availability of funds.

To cooperate with and assist those in charge of the Marching Band, the School Board, and the Administration, to ensure that this program is at the highest possible degree of performance and efficiency, and to maintain an organization which will help promote and enhance the general activities of the Marching Band.

To exist solely for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of the Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation shall not directly or indirectly participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or opposed to any candidate for public office. The Corporation shall not have objectives or engage in activities which would characterize it as an “action” organization as that term is defined in Treasury Regulation 1.501(c) (3)-1(c)(3).

To conduct the affairs of the Corporation so that no distinction shall be made as to race, color, creed, sex, age or handicap with regard to membership or delivery of services.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

The membership of this organization shall be open to anyone interested in the progress and development of the Marching Band program in the Belle Vernon Area High School. The initial membership of the Corporation shall consist of all those who are currently members in good standing of the BVA Band Parents organization who wish to transfer their membership to this Corporation.

The membership dues shall be as established by the Board in the Standing Rules of the organization as may be amended from time to time. Individuals will be considered Active Members upon payment of current year's dues. The "current year" shall begin on July 1 of each year. Active Members are voting members. Membership closes, and payment must be made, as of December 31st of the current school year.

Each officer and committee chairperson must be a parent or legal guardian of a student currently in the Marching Band and must be a current member in good standing of this Corporation at the time of his or her nomination or appointed to the Board or standing committee, and must continue to maintain active membership throughout his or her term of office. The Financial Secretary, or such other person as may be appointed by the Executive Board, shall maintain a complete and accurate record of all members. In the event that the child of an officer or member of the Board should quit, or terminate his or her participation in the Band for any reason, during that officer or Board member's term, the officer or Board member shall forfeit his or her position as an officer or Board member, unless the Board member continues to have other child or children who are members of the the Band.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

The officers of this organization shall be: President, Vice President, Secretary, Financial Secretary, and Treasurer. No office shall be held by any one person for more than two consecutive years. To be nominated for the office of President, an individual must have been on the Executive Board in the year immediately preceding the nomination, unless no such member of the Executive Board is willing to accept the nomination. No one person shall hold more than one officer position simultaneously, unless that should become necessary temporarily because of an unplanned vacancy in that office, which vacancy shall be filled as promptly as possible in accordance with these Bylaws. Each officer shall serve for a term of approximately one(1) year commencing immediately after his or her installation, which installation shall occur immediately after the elections held in accordance with Article IX of these Bylaws. All officers shall be elected to their respective offices in accordance with these Bylaws.

ARTICLE V. DUTIES OF OFFICERS

SECTION 1

The President shall be considered as the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation: shall preside over all meetings of the Board and the membership; shall have the powers and duties of management and direction as are usually vested in the office of President and CEO of a cooperation; shall sign all official documents, contracts, titles, and any other kind of binding written document on behalf of the Corporation as may be approved by the Board of Directors in accordance with these Bylaws; and shall be ex-officio of all committees.

SECTION II

The Vice President shall assume all duties and authority of the President in his or her absence; shall share with the President the duties of oversight of the activities of the Fundraising and Special Events Committees; shall solicit bids from tour companies regarding the Marching Band's trip; shall serve as Tour Sponsor for the trip; and shall perform such additional duties as may be designated by the President and/or the Executive Board from time to time.

SECTION III

The Secretary shall keep all the minutes of all meetings and shall attend to all correspondence and publicity. The Secretary shall also update the webmaster with regard to all pertinent information regarding Band activities, including, but not limited to rules, Bylaws, meeting dates, fundraising projects, performance dates, trip information, and any and all other information relevant to members of the Band and their parents or guardians.

SECTION IV

The Financial Secretary shall keep an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements, showing each activity separately. He or she shall also keep a complete record of all the organizations' funds and shall present a financial statement at every meeting. The Financial Secretary shall receive all bank statements and all canceled checks, and shall arrange for an audit of accounts at the end of each school year. The Financial Secretary shall keep an accurate record of all student credits. The financial Secretary shall attend all hoagie sales and collect all hoagie sales proceeds money and issue the Hoagie sale reports. The Financial Secretary shall serve as the Chairperson of the Budget Committee.

SECTION V

The Treasurer shall receive and deposit all funds of the organization. The Treasurer shall keep a record of all disbursements on a financial ledger for the Executive Board. All membership dues, fundraising money, donations, etc. collected will be turned over to the Treasurer for deposit. All bills will be turned over to the Treasurer for payment.

The treasurer shall arrange for a Bonding Policy annually; the bond will cover all officers and members handling Band Parents funds.

SECTION VI

All checks must carry three(3) of the following signatures: President, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, or Band Director.

Spouses or Domestic Partners shall not hold executive offices simultaneously.

ARTICLE VI. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION I

The Executive Board of Directors shall consist of all the Officers(See Article IV) and the Band Director, or, in the absence of the Band Director, the Assistant Band Director.

SECTION II

The Voting Board shall consist of the Executive Bard as defined in Section I of this Article, together with the Chairpersons of the Hoagies, Concessions, Fundraising Committee, Special Events Committee, and Safety Director, which Committees are hereby designated as the Permanent Committees.

SECTION III

The Executive Board of Directors shall, by majority vote, select the Chairpersons and members of the Hoagies, Concessions, and Fundraising Committees; shall determine and create such other Committees as it may deem appropriate; shall select people to fill those other Committees, including selecting Chairpersons and Assistant Chairperson of those Committees; shall appoint a Safety Director who shall be a member of the General Board of Directors; shall adopt the Standing Rules of the organization which shall remain in effect until amended or modified or replaced by the Executive Board in its discretion from time to time; and shall select people to fill vacated offices temporarily until such Office is filled through an election as provided in the Bylaws. The Executive Board may also, in its discretion, appoint from the membership of the Corporation an Administrative Assistant (who shall have such duties as shall be determined by the Executive Committee); and Equipment Manager; a supervisor of the Band Managers to assist the latter in the performance of their duties and to assist the staff with the band performances; a Uniform Manager, and a videographer. Each appointed committee shall have a Chairperson(s). In the absence of the Chairperson at a meeting of the Board, an Assistant Chairperson of a committee represented on the Voting Board may exercise a right to vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors. However, each committee shall have only one (1) vote.

SECTION IV

The Voting Board of Directors shall, by majority vote, unless otherwise specified in the Bylaws, establish the policies and transact the business of the Corporation, which shall include, but is not limited to, approving the plans of the committees, approving and making arrangements for the annual band trip, approving all expenditures of the organization, and approving all fundraising projects.

SECTION V

A quorum of the Voting Board of Directors shall consist of 6 members.

SECTION VI

The General Board of Directors shall be comprised of the following:

- The Voting Board of Directors (See Section II of this Article);
- Committee members of the Permanent Committees (See Section II of the Article) in addition to the Chairpersons of those Permanent Committees (which chairpersons are members of the Voting Board); and the Assistant Director.
- The Chairpersons and Assistant Chairperson of such other Committees as may be established by the Executive Board of Directors pursuant to Section III of this Article;
- The Safety Director, to be appointed by the Executive Board pursuant to Section Article VI, Section III;
- The Administrative Assistant, if so Appointed;
- The Equipment Manager, if so appointed;
- The Uniform Manager, if so appointed;
- The Supervisor of the Band Managers, if so appointed.

Those members of the General Board of Directors who are not members of the Voting Board shall have the power, right and authority to participate in discussions of issues pending before the Board of Directors, but shall not have the right to participate in voting on such issues or to make motions or resolutions or to second the same. PROVIDED, that nothing herein is intended to preclude a non-voting member of the General Board of Directors from suggesting or recommending motions for resolutions for adoption by the Voting Board. However, such Motion or Resolution may not be considered by the Voting Board of Directors unless the Motion or Resolution is made and seconded by a member of the Voting Board of Directors.

Section VII

The General Board of Directors, The Executive Board of Directors and the Voting Board of Directors shall have the power and authority, upon proper Motion and by majority vote of the Voting Board members present at a meeting to go into Executive Session to discuss legal issues, personnel issues, or issues of a sensitive personal nature involving members or students. Minutes of those Executive Sessions will be maintained separately.

SECTION VIII

The members of the General Board of Directors shall be entitled to act as chaperones and participate in activities and functions to support the objectives listed. The spouse of the Director and Assistant Director shall also be eligible to serve as chaperones. All chaperones shall be required to have all clearances required by law. Due to financial constraints, the number of chaperones participating in the spring trip may have to be limited. The Executive Board shall make the final determination as to who shall be eligible to chaperone at a particular event and as to which chaperones shall be entitled to have their trip expenses paid for by the Corporation.

SECTION IX

Meetings of the General Board of Directors shall normally be held monthly on dates to be determined by the Executive Board of Directors, with the exception of December, when there shall not be a regular meeting of the Board unless the President should determine that such a meeting is necessary. A schedule of regular meetings shall be published in the Standing Rules of the Corporation. Any deviation from that schedule shall require at least three (3) days' notice by means provided for in Section X of this Article. Special meetings may be called by the President or by at least two officers and one other Executive Board Member at any time with proper notice to all members in the manner provided for in Section X of this Article.

SECTION X

Notice of meeting may be provided via email, telephone, text, or by posting on the band website.

SECTION XI

Robert's Rules of Order shall guide all procedures not otherwise herein specified.

SECTION XII

In the event that the President or at least two officers of the Executive Board of Directors deem it necessary to obtain a decision on an issue before the next scheduled Executive Board Meeting, the issue may be presented to the General Board of Directors prior to the meeting via email communications. The General Board members may then communicate such discussion of the issue as they deem necessary via email, culminating in the submission of a vote by each member of the Voting Board of Directors via email communication to the President. A quorum of the Board shall be required in terms of the number of votes cast (see Section V, above) before the vote can be considered to be the decision of the Board. In the event that a vote is taken in the manner provided for in the Section, the Voting Board of Directors shall, at its next meeting, ratify the action taken by the printed email messages representing votes cast by the Executive Board members who voted on the issue shall be attached to the Minutes. Provided, that in the event that at least three members of the Executive Board should object to the submission of the issue to the Board via email communications and email vote, then such vote shall not be taken, and, if taken, shall not be considered to be the decision of the Board of Directors, and the issue shall be submitted to the Board at the next special or regular meeting of the Board. PROVIDED FURTHER, that the Officers shall utilize email voting only when absolutely necessary to obtain a Board decision which requires action before a meeting can be held, it being recognized that the give and take of open discussion at a meeting is the preferred manner in which to take action on issues presented to the Corporation.

SECTION XIII

It shall be the function and responsibility of the Voting Board of Directors annually to prepare a budget for presentation to the Membership of the Corporation no later than the May general membership meeting. The Budget shall be prepared by a Budget Committee consisting of the Band Director, the entire Executive Board, and two other members to be appointed by the President, including an active member who is not a member of the Board of Directors. The Financial Secretary shall serve as the Chairperson of the Budget Committee.

Section XIV

The Board of Directors shall report on its activities to the Membership at the regular general Membership meetings.

ARTICLE VII. GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

SECTION I

The general membership meeting of this Corporation shall be held on the fourth Tuesday of each calendar month, excluding December, beginning in August and ending in May. SECTION III

Officers will be elected at the April meeting and will be installed at the May meeting.

SECTION IV

Election of officers shall be determined by means of a majority vote of the active members present at the meeting at which the election is being held.

SECTION V

In the event of a vacancy in one of the Officer positions due to resignation, death, incapacity or removal from office, the Executive Board shall appoint a member in good standing of the Corporation to fill that position on a temporary basis. At the time that the Executive Board temporarily fills that position, the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of at least three (3) Active Members and the Band Director to nominate someone to fill that vacancy. The election to fill that position shall be held at the regular membership meeting to be held in the month following the appointment of the Nominating Committee, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible.

ARTICLE X. COMPENSATION AND NET EARNINGS

SECTION I

No member, officer, director, committee chairperson or committee member shall receive any compensation for his or her services to the Corporation. PROVIDED, that nothing herein is intended to preclude the Corporation from providing reimbursement to such persons for out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred by him or her, upon presentation of appropriate documentation of the incurring of such expense. It is acknowledged that certain members of the Board of Directors consist of professional staff, including, but not limited to, the Band Director, the Assistant Band Director, and the Auxiliary sponsors. Those persons are not compensated for their services to the Coproproation, nor are they nor will they receive their compensation from the Corporation.

SECTION II

No part of the Corporations net earnings will inure to the benefit of members, directors, officers or other private persons.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENT

SECTION I

A proposed Amendment to these Bylaws shall be presented to the Voting Board at least ten (10) days in advance of the meeting at which such Amendment is to be considered by the Board. An Amendment shall be approved by the Board for presentation to the Membership of the Corporation if voted on favorably by two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of those members of the Voting Board present at the meeting at which the vote is take, provided that there is a quorum present at that meeting. Voting Board present at the meeting at which the vote is taken, provided that there is a quorum. After approval by the Voting Board, the Proposed Amendment shall thereafter be presented to the members a the next General Membership meeting and shall be adopted if voted upon favorably by the majority vote at the next General Membership meeting held after the presentation of the proposed Amendment, provided that a quorum is present at that meeting.

SECTION II

Alternatively, a proposed Amendment to these By-Laws may be adopted upon Petition of fifteen (15) members in good standing of the Corporation in accordance with the following procedure: The Petition setting forth the proposed amendment shall be presented to the President of the Corporation, who shall present it to the members of the Corporation at the next scheduled general membership, and shall be adopted if voted upon favorably by majority vote at the next general membership meeting held after the presentation of the proposed Amendment, provided that a quorum is present at that meeting.

ARTICLE XII. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS, BONDS AND INSURANCE

SECTION I

Such officers, Board members, committee chairpersons, etc., as the Executive Board shall designate, shall be covered by bonds of fidelity, secured from a guaranty company, in amounts determined and approved by the Board. The Corporation shall pay the cost of any fidelity bond so required.

SECTION II

Liability insurance may be secured by the Corporation covering the officers, Board members, committee chairpersons, etc., as the Executive Board shall designate, in amounts determined and approved by the Executive Board.

SECTION III

The Corporation shall, to the extent permitted by the Pennsylvania Nonprofit Corporation Law, the Director's Liability Act and any other laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as amended from time to time, defend and indemnify against any liability not covered by liability insurance or other insurance, any person who was or is a party or is threatened or made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation), including antitrust, civil rights, and punitive damage claims, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a member of the Board of Directors, an officer, committee chairperson, or agent of the Corporation designed to receive this protection, or is or was at the request of the Corporation a Board member, officer, committee chairperson or agent of another Corporation, partnership, joint venture or enterprise, and as such, designated to receive this protection.
