

BUILDING EDUCATIONAL BRIDGES

ENGAGE WITH TOP US SECONDARY AND TERTIARY STUDENTS WITH GRADPAL'S INTERNATIONAL STUDENT MENTORSHIP PROGRAM

Learn How to Navigate the US Educational System and Educational Culture While Building Critical Networks

What are the Benefits?

Connect with well-prepared current private school and top university (Ivy League, Stanford, etc.) students who can serve as guides to the US educational experience

For international students at top schools outside the US, GradPal's program serves as a way to connect you to your future peers in the US so that you already have a network

This program also creates cost-free avenues for future opportunities and international /cross-cultural engagements that can be highlighted in a competitive Uni. application

What's the Process?

All you need to do is submit an application using the link here, or by scanning the QR code below. We prioritize students who are unlikely to already have adequate support.

If you wish to have personalized and engaged support from the GradPal network spanning the world's top universities, alumni, and careers, you can meet with us by registering for a complimentary consultation.
