ABOUT

Jack Dunker delivers a modern Red Dirt sound with groove driven rhythms and soulful storytelling, a style he calls “Funk’d Up Country.” Originally performing alongside brothers Devin and Ben Ellman as Jack Dunker and the Ellman Bros, he later shifted into solo work, playing bars, breweries, and coffeehouses while honing his craft. Influenced by artists like Ryan Bingham, Jason Isbell, Tyler Childers, Evan Felker, and outlaw legends Waylon Jennings, Willie Nelson, and Johnny Cash, Jack released his debut EP in summer 2024.

In early 2025, Jack signed with Smokeshow Entertainment and has since shared the stage with Walker Montgomery, The Scarecrows, Canaan Cox, Ritch Henderson, Clay Clear Band, and Low Gap, along with standout performances at fairs and rodeos. Splitting time between Kansas and Oklahoma, Jack actively tours throughout the region while building a national fanbase ahead of a busy 2026 touring season.
